As you can see this is a Family Group sheet prepared by Don Bowman. There is quite a lot of controversy about this WISE family and especially about the Annie OAKLEY relationship (which is noted at bottom of page). I'll try to do a bit of explaining.

According to several of the CRIPE researchers (including Don Bowman) Mary Cripe married John Wise Sr. I do not have a family group sheet on this couple.

John WISE Jr. (whose group sheet I am inclosing) was supposed to have married ELIZABETH PUTERBAUGH. We have no proof of this but logic points that it could be true. We know that John Peter Butterbaugh's wife's name was Elizabeth (?) We also know that according to 1790 census that there were more children in this Butterbaugh family that we have records of - especially there are several daughters unaccounted for. We are reasonably sure, however no proof, that this Elizabeth Puterbaugh was a daughter of John Peter Butterbaugh, one of the immigrants.

Next MARY ANN WISE - here we are sure - The John A. Puterbaugh that she married was the s/o Peter Butterbaugh Jr. and Mary Ake (he son of John Peter Butterbaugh) We have this family fairly well documented:

2 child: John Wise, Jr. (probably should be the III) Here we also feel sure that John WISE, b. c1802 married 1st Elizabeth Teeter (d/o Abraham & Hannah Teeter He died about 1832 and Elizabeth (Teeter) Wise married as 2nd husband Jacob Puderbaugh Jr. 22 Mar. 1833. Elizabeth had 3 children by WISE. Two died as infants, the other JOHN WISE grew up, married - I have his family.

No other comments on Jacob WISE who was supposed to have married 1st Emily Clapper, except that Marie L. Engle in her "Clappers in America" thinks that this probably isn't so.

I do have the families of Daniel Wise & Catherine Longenecker and also the family of David WISE & Eliza Bixler (Don gives her as Eliza BEELER, this is not correct)

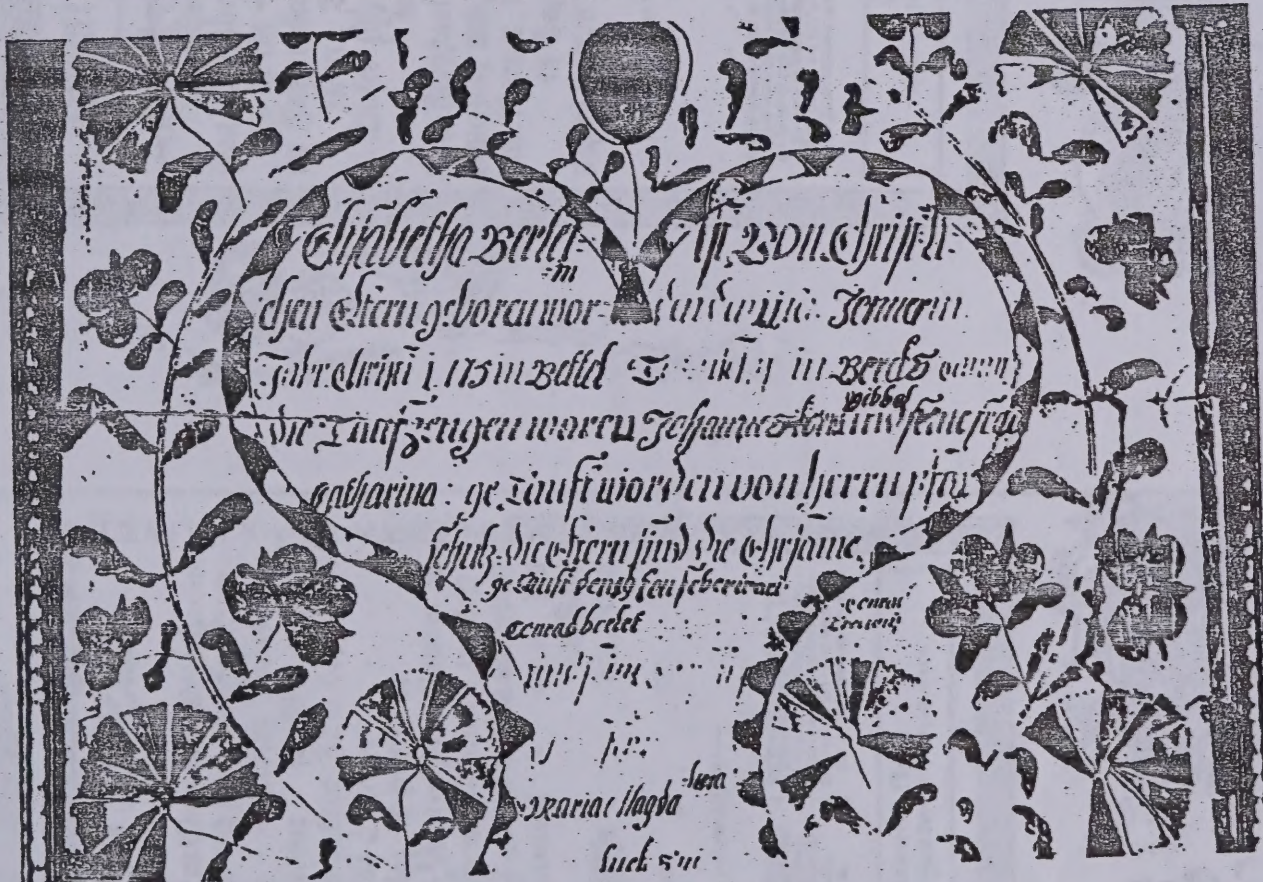

We do have quite a bit of history of ANNIE OAKLEY - we do know that Susan WISE was her mother and that she was married 1st to Jacob Moses (Mosee) What we are now not sure of is was Jacob Wise 1st married to a Clapper and was this Emily Clapper the d/o Jacob Clapper & Eleanor Rooth. Mrs. Engle does list Emily in this family, but she does say that there is no proof of this, and she rather doubts the validity of this. She thinks that it is only family tradition. Personally I just don't know, but I have been sent this information by at least 4 different people - but it all could have come from the same source - and maybe not proven.

Elizabeth Berletin was born by Christian parents on the eleventh of January in the year of our Lord 1775 in Bettel, Township in Bercks County. ^{Bercks} PA

Witnesses of baptism were: Johannes Korngibbel and his wife Catharina.
The baptism was performed by Pastor Schulz, it was on the 19th Feb.

The parents are the honorable Conrad Berlet and his wife Maria

As soon as we are born
from the first step of life
until the cool earthly grave,
it is only a measured stride.
Alas! our strength diminishes with every moment and with each passing year we come all too soon to the grave.

And who knows in which hour
we will be called home
for God has never revealed
it to any man.
He who has his affairs in order
leaves the world with joy
Where as certainly the contrary will assure an eternal dying.

(bottom verses)

I am baptized, I am united through my baptism with my God.
Thus I always speak joyfully
in pain, in sorrow, in fear and need.
I am baptized of that I greatly rejoice
The joy remains with me eternally.

I am baptized, even though I should die what harm can the cool grave bring me?
I know my citizenship and inheritance
which I will receive in heaven.
After my death is prepared for me
the joy of heaven and heavenly robes.

Note: The following estate is now stored in the Darke County Home annex and although they were previously under the jurisdiction of the Probate Court, but are now under the jurisdiction of the Darke County Commissioners. There is no photocopy service available at the Home; however, it is possible that this might(?) be accomplished by writing to the Commissioners, but probably then only by assuming that they will do it (sending your check) rather than asking them beforehand.

Bible presented to the Garst Museum on June 19, 1981 by William Self Records copied from the bible June 20th, 1981 by Toni T. Seiler.

Note:

The dates on Susan Wise and the daughters with surname of Mosey were in the handwriting of Annie Oakley lending credence to the story that she would not use the name Moses insisting that the family name was Mosey. Stories persist that she destroyed the Moses Family Bible to further her claim that the name was Mosey and not Moses.

When climbing your family tree don't forget to include the "fallen leaves".

Birth: May 1, 1799
 Blair County
 Pennsylvania, USA
Death: Feb. 2, 1866
 Willowdell
 Darke County
 Ohio, USA

Jacob's parents were John Mosey 1791-1850 and Mary Carl 1788-?
 Susanna Wise, age 18, and Jacob Moses, age 49, married in 1848. They were the parents of Phoebe Ann Mosey (Annie Oakley). Jacob fought in the War of 1812, died in 1866 at age 65, from pneumonia and overexposure from freezing weather, leaving behind 8 children. Mary Jane, Lydia Mary, Elizabeth, Catherine, Sarah Ellen, Phoebe Ann, John Henry and Hulda.
 Phoebe insisted her last name was spelled Mozee, but the military spelled Jacob's last name Mosey. A few of his children spelled their last name Moses.

The close up picture is a Pellon rubbing taken in 2011 by dennis. The actual marker is not easy to read.

Susanna Wise, age 18, and Jacob Moses, age 49, married in 1848. They were the parents of Phoebe Ann Mosey (Annie Oakley). Jacob fought in the War of 1812, died in 1866 at age 65, from pneumonia and overexposure from freezing weather, leaving behind 8 children. Mary Jane, Lydia Mary, Elizabeth, Catherine, Sarah Ellen, Phoebe Ann, John Henry and Hulda.

Phoebe insisted her last name was spelled Mozee, but the military spelled Jacob's last name Mosey. At least one of his children spelled their last name Moses.

At a very young age Jacob joined the ATTALION (DAWSON'S), OHIO MILITIA, during the War of 1812

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Clark Fenk 74, well known resident of Geneva, died Sunday.

Glenn Curtiss, pioneer aviator and inventor, died in Buffalo, Wednesday.

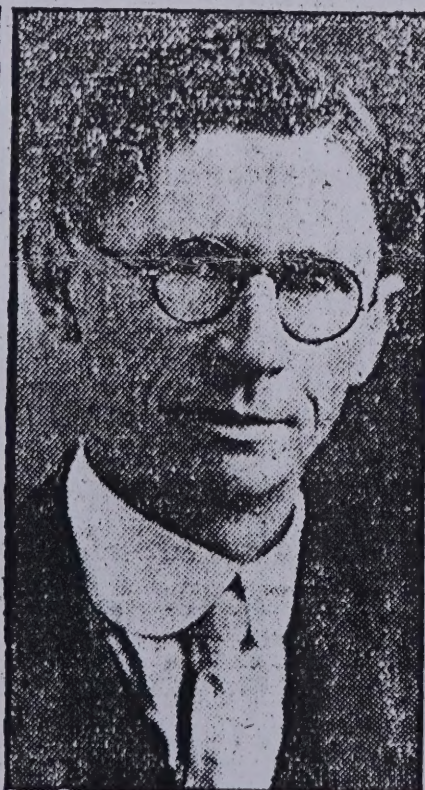

Rev. Anthony Dick, an aged priest, died Monday at the St. Charles Seminary at Carthage.

Mrs. John Milligan, a former resident of Celina, died at Daytona, Florida. She was preceded in death by her husband and her only son.

Mrs. Ethel Wade died Friday morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Boroff Van Wert following a lingering illness. Ohio City relatives attended the funeral held in Van Wert Sunday.

Andrew H. Richie, 63, a well-known farmer, living near Montezuma, died Saturday in a hospital in Ann Arbor. The widow and five children survive. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Montezuma.

Mr. Joseph Paus 48, died Saturday in the Otis hospital, following

FATAL ACCIDENT

Glen Hurst 18, was drowned when swimming in a stone quarry at Decatur. He was with a large crowd of swimmers, and it is supposed that he suffered a heart attack.

Mrs. Ellen Grabfelder, former resident of Darke county, was fatally injured in an auto accident in Kansas City. The woman was a sister of the famous marks woman, Annie Oakley who died several years ago, and is buried in the cemetery south of Brock, State Route No. 9.

Roy L. Bush, 20, of Marion, Ind., was drowned in the France stone quarry at Middlepoint, on Monday. It was evident that he had gone to the quarry alone, for his body was accidentally discovered later by other swimmers, when diving in the quarry.

The funeral of Amos Shaffer, 83, who was killed in a fall from a window at Lima, was held Monday afternoon in Van Wert, where a son, Curt Shaffer resides. Seeking relief from the heat Saturday, Mr. Shaffer was sitting in a third story window when he was overcome, and fell to the sidewalk.

James Downey 78, retired farmer of St. Marys, was suffocated when burning brush on his farm north of St. Marys, Monday afternoon. Neighbors alarmed at the spreading fire, went to the scene and found the man's body before it was reached by the flames. A widow and four daughters survive.

SISTER OF FAMED MARKSWOMAN DIES IN CRASH

Mrs. Ella Grabfelder, Former County Resident, Meets Death in Accident at Kansas City Last Night—Brother Leaves to Complete Funeral Arrangements—Sister of Annie Oakley.

Word has been received here of the violent death of Mrs. Ellen Grabfelder, a former county resident, which occurred in an auto accident at Kansas City, Mo., last night. Details were not disclosed.

Mrs. Grabfelder was a sister of the late Annie Oakley, internationally famous markswoman, whose death occurred during the past few years. Another sister, Mrs. Hulda Haines, resides in Greenville, while a brother, John H. Moses, lives near Welmer's Mill on the Greenville-Union City road.

Mr. Moses left for Kansas City early this morning to complete funeral arrangements. It is probable that the remains will be shipped to this city for burial.

Mrs. Grabfelder had resided in the west for nearly two score years, but should be remembered by older local residents.

It is expected that details concerning her tragic death, and funeral arrangements, will be available for publication tomorrow.

PILGRIMAGE SUNDAY, 2 PM

This Sunday, 2 p.m. as part of the 14th Annie Oakley Days celebration, one of the significant facets of the weekend's observance will take place, the annual pilgrimage to the Annie Oakley-Frank Butler graves at Brock cemetery. The plans call for a bus, supplied by the First United Church of Christ to depart Garst Museum at that hour for the 11-mile journey. Private autos may also join the procession. Once at the cemetery, Rev. Donald Myers of the First UCC will offer the invocation and benediction. Paul Wood administrative assistant for Congressman Thomas Kindness will deliver a brief address which is to be followed by the playing of taps. A star, donated by Harold Stockslager, will be placed on the Oakley grave by the winner of this year's "Miss Annie Oakley" shooting contest. City and county officials as well as members of Annie's family have been invited to attend the ceremonies. (Museum photo)

Biography

According to the Annie Oakley Foundation, Annie Oakley was born in "a cabin less than 2 miles northwest of Woodland, now Willowdell, in Darke County, Ohio." [3]

Wild West show poster

(<http://web.archive.org/web/20021015053658/http://www.ormiston.com/annieoakley/tales>

(<http://web.archive.org/web/20021015053658/www.ormiston.com/annieoakley/tales.html>)

Annie was the fifth of seven children. Her parents, Susan and Jacob Mosey [5]
(<http://www.annieoakleyfoundation.org/aim.html>), were Quakers from Pennsylvania. A fire burned down their tavern so they moved to a rented farm in Patterson Township, Darke County, Ohio. Her father, who had fought in the War of 1812, died in 1866 from pneumonia and overexposure in freezing weather. Susan Mosey remarried, had another child, and was widowed a second time. During this time, Annie was put in the care of the superintendent of the county poor farm, where she learned to embroider and sew. She spent some time in near servitude for a local family where she endured mental and physical abuse (Annie only referred to them as "the wolves"). When she reunited with her family, her mother had remarried a third time.

Partly due to poverty following the death of her father, and partly by preference, Annie did not regularly attend school with other children of her age. Later she received some additional education. Apparently, she could not spell her family's name since she later rendered it ending in "ee". Her family's surname, "Mosey", appears on her father's gravestone, in his military record and is the official spelling by the Annie Oakley Foundation (AOF) maintained by her living relatives.[6]

(<http://www.annieoakleyfoundation.org/aim.html>) Being one of many Oakley myths, the name "Moses" appears incorrectly attributed in some encyclopedia entries and internet searches; AOF reported that her "brother John and sister Hulda changed their names to Moses before their dual wedding ceremony in 1884." [7]

(<http://web.archive.org/web/20021015053658/http://www.ormiston.com/annieoakley/tales>)

Annie began hunting at the age of nine to support her siblings and her widowed mother. She sold the hunting game to locals for money, and her skill eventually paid off the mortgage on her mother's house.

Annie soon became known throughout the region as a shotgun sharpshooter. During the spring of 1881, the Baughman and Butler shooting act was being performed in Cincinnati. Marksman Francis "Frank" E. Butler, (1850-1926), placed a $100 bet ($1900, adjusted for inflation) with hotel owner Jack Frost, that Butler could beat any local fancy shooter. The hotelier arranged a shooting match with Annie, age 21, to be held in ten days time in a small town near Greenville, Ohio. Frank later said it was "18 miles from the nearest station" (about the distance from Greenville to North Star). After missing his 25th shot, Frank lost the match and the bet — a serendipitous irony that led him to become a well-known winner in backstage life. Frank began courting Annie, won her heart, and they began a happy marriage of 44 years on June 20, 1882. [8]

(<http://web.archive.org/web/20021015053658/www.ormiston.cn/annieoakley/tales.html>)

They lived in Cincinnati for a time, and she is believed to have taken her stage name from the city's neighborhood of Oakley, where they resided. At first, Oakley was Butler's assistant in his travelling show. Later, Butler realized that Oakley was more talented, so he became her assistant and business manager. Annie and Frank's personal and business success in handling celebrity is considered a model show business relationship even after more than a century.

They joined the Buffalo Bill's Wild West show in 1885. Standing only 5 feet (1.5 m), Oakley was given the nickname of "Watanya Cicilla" by fellow performer Sitting Bull, rendered "Little Sure Shot" in the public advertisements.

During her first Buffalo Bill's show engagement, Oakley experienced a tense professional rivalry with rifle sharpshooter Lillian Smith. Smith promoted herself as younger and, therefore, more billable than Oakley. Oakley temporarily left the Buffalo Bill's show but returned after Smith departed.

Oakley had initially responded to the show's age rivalry by removing six years from her promoted age. She was a modest and proper woman, who couldn't remove any more years without making it seem that she was born out of wedlock after her father died. As it was, her promoted age led to perennial wrong calculations of her true age and the dates for some of her biographical events. For example, the 1881 spring shooting match with Frank occurred when she was a 21-year-old adult. However, that event is widely repeated as occurring six years earlier in the fall, which also suggests a mythical teen romance with Frank.

In Europe she performed before Queen Victoria and other crowned heads of state. Oakley had such good aim that, at his request, she knocked the ashes off a cigarette held by the Prince of Prussia, the future Kaiser Wilhelm II.[9]

(<http://web.archive.org/web/20021015053658/http://www.ormiston.com/annieoakley/tales>: AOF suggests Annie was not the source of a widely-repeated sarcasm related to the event. "Some uncharitable people later ventured that if Annie would have shot Wilhelm and not his cigarette, she could have prevented World War I." [10]

(<http://web.archive.org/web/20021015053658/http://www.ormiston.com/annieoakley/tales>

In 1901, she was badly injured in a railway crash, but she fully recovered after temporary paralysis and several spinal operations (some say that she suffered only small injuries). She soon left the Buffalo Bill show and began a quieter acting career in a stage play written especially for her, The Western Girl. Following her injury and change of career, it only added to her legend that her shooting expertise continued to increase into her 60's.

In 1903, sensational cocaine prohibition stories were selling well. The newspaper magnate, William Randolph Hearst, published a false story that Oakley had been arrested for stealing to support a cocaine habit. The woman actually arrested was a burlesque performer who told Chicago police that her name was "Annie Oakley". The original Annie Oakley spent much of the next six years winning 54 of 55 libel lawsuits against newspapers. She collected less in judgements than were her legal expenses, but to her, a restored reputation justified the loss of time and money.[11]

(http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/amex/oakley/peopleevents/p_oakley.html)

Most of the newspapers that printed the story had relied on wire services, and upon learning of the libelous error they immediately retracted the false story with apologies. Publisher Hearst, however, tried to avoid paying the anticipated court judgements of $15,000 ($285,000, adjusted for inflation) by sending an investigator to Darke County with the intent of collecting reputation-smearing gossip from Annie's past. The investigator found nothing.

Annie continued to set records into her 60s, even after suffering a debilitating automobile accident that forced her to wear a steel brace on her right leg. In a shooting contest in Pinehurst, North Carolina in 1922, sixty-two-year-old Annie hit 100 clay targets straight from the 16 yard mark. [12] (<http://lkwdpl.org/wihohio/oakl-ann.htm>) She also engaged in extensive albeit quiet philanthropy for women's rights and other causes, including the support of specific young women that she knew.

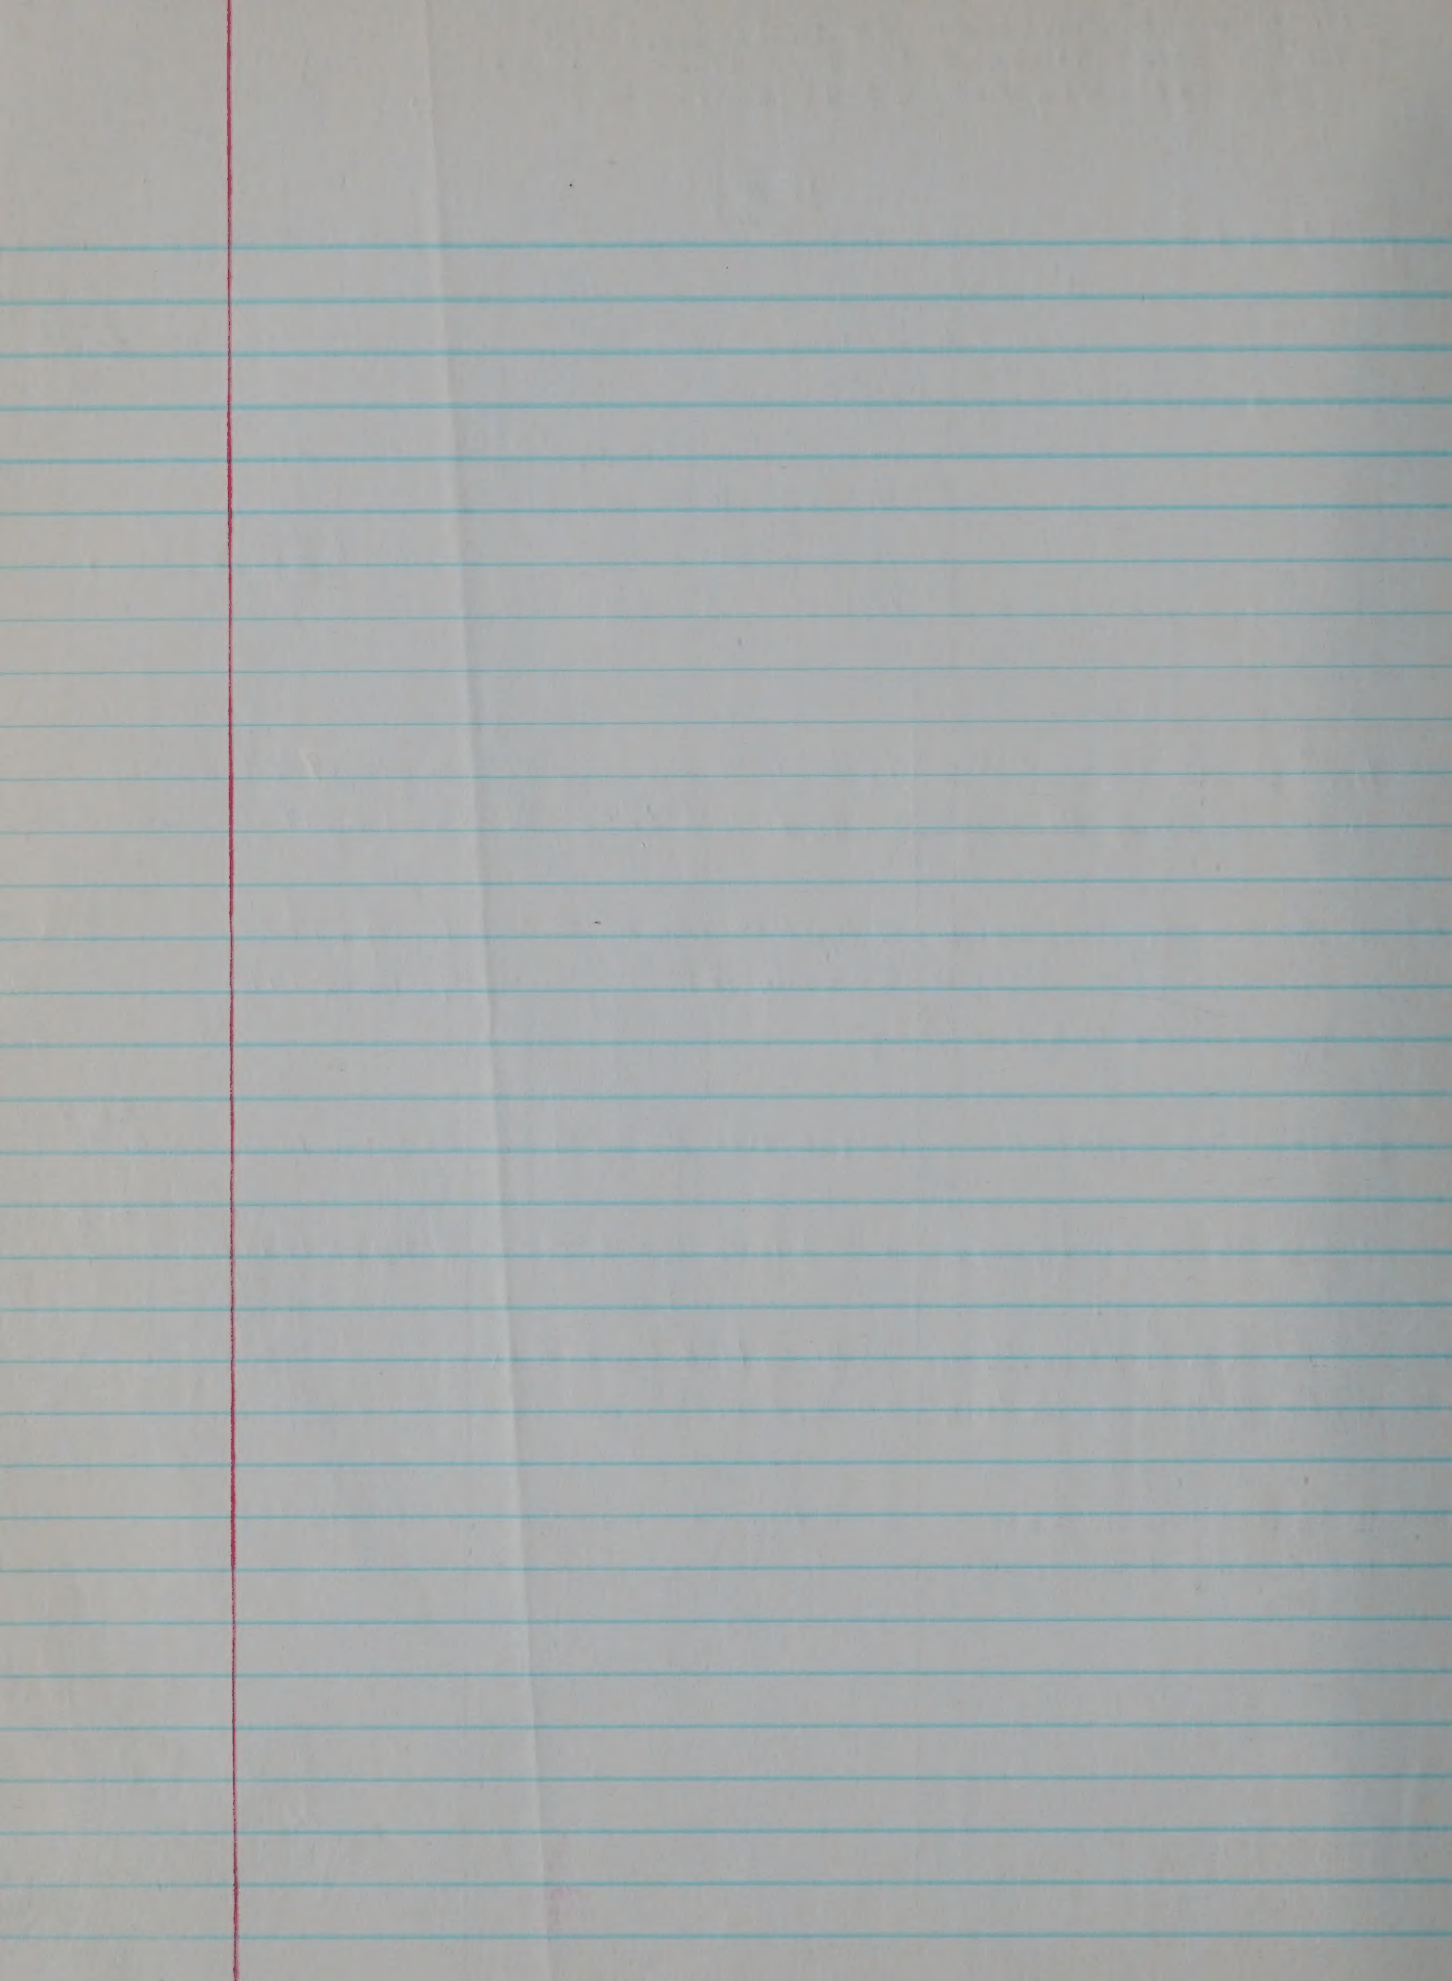

Annie Oakley died on November 3, 1926, of pernicious anemia, at the age of 66 and was buried in Brock Cemetery^[1] in Greenville, Ohio. Her husband, Frank Butler, died just 18 days later. After her death it was discovered that her entire fortune had been spent on her charities.

'ANNIE OAKLEY' HOME IS SOLD FOR $690

Mercer County Buyer Plans
To Live On Farm Place

The historic Annie Oakley homestead, immediately south of North Star on the Greenville-Celina road, fell under the auctioneer's hammer here today for $690.

The farm place, which embraces a 10-acre plot of ground, was bid off by William Winglewich, of Ft. Recovery, R. R., who later stated that he planned to establish his home there in the immediate future. Sale of the place, appraised at $600, was conducted in connection with settlement of the estate of the late Mary Beemer, V. L. Roll, Greenville, was auctioneer.

Considerable interest had been manifested in the sale due to the fact that the farm tract was at one time the home of the late Laura Moses, better known as "Annie Oakley", one of the world's most renowned rifle shots.

It had been expected that several bids would be received from rifle clubs in this section but they were not forthcoming. It is believed that inclement weather conditions were responsible for the limited attendance at the sale.

SISTER OF ANNA OAKLEY VISITS COUNTY FRIENDS

Detroit, Michigan Woman Visits
Adopted Mother at Covington and Stops for Short Time With Friends in County—Gives Reason for Cremation of Famous Marksman.

Miss Hulda Oakley of Detroit, Michigan, sister of the late world famous Anna Oakley, who passed away in this city a little over a year ago, recently paid a surprise visit to Mrs. Hester Whitacre of Covington, her adopted mother, and several friends in Darke county. should say Moses

Miss Oakley was taken in 1864 as an orphan from the hands of trustees by Mrs. Whitacre, who was then Mrs. Bartholomew. Mrs. Whitacre welcomed Miss Oakley as one of her very own children. Miss Oakley expressed her own delight saying she felt that she was coming home, as home was where "mother" dwelt. Annie

The day at the Whitacre home was spent very pleasantly together, talking over the old days. Anna Oakley many times visited, at the Bartholomew home, where she practiced at shooting, with the gun, killing rabbits and quail. Miss Oakley repeated the story of her sister and said all was not in the newspapers. She said Anna had requested the cremation of her body after death so it could not be removed from its resting place.

HOLLIDAYSBURG HAPPENINGS.

Martin L. Wise died of consumption at the home of his father, Mr. Jacob Wise, at Reservoir station, at half-past 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The funeral will occur on Monday morning at 9.30 o'clock. Interment at Geeseytown cemetery.

Morning Tribune, Altoona, Pa., Saturday, February 14, 1891

HOLLIDAYSBURG HAPPENINGS.

The funeral of Martin L. Wise occurred at Reservoir Station yesterday morning at half-past 9 o'clock. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the Baptist church, where the services were held, was filled with the neighbors and friends of the deceased young man. The services were conducted by Rev. Owen James, who preached an able sermon. Mr. Wise was a member of the Baptist church of this place and for many years superintendent of the Mission Sunday school at Reservoir. He was also a member of the board of deacons, and probably the youngest man ever elected to that office by this church. Although only 25 years of age, he had by the force of an upright character and consistent Christian life attained a position of great influence in the community, and in a modest, unpretentious way accomplished much for the good of his fellow-men. Such a life is worthy of emulation.

Lloyd Wise 130.10.1.3.4.8

72ED727A-99C5-41FD-ACA8- A24D805A35E0

ALTOONA, AUGUST 25, 1887.

CORRESPONDENCE.

HOLLIDAYSBURG.

X Mr. Lloyd Wise, whose brother died a few weeks ago with consumption, is confined to his bed with the same disease and not expected to live.

F. P. Confer is farming bull-frogs on his reservoir farm. A sure and profitable enterprise, as frogs are always in demand and not subject to the hog or chicken cholera.

Gaysport borough has neither a church nor a preacher, a doctor, lawyer, or postmaster, and yet all its eight hundred inhabitants are Gaysports that are both healthy and happy.

Mr. Louis Barroner has sold his house and lot on Pine street Hollidaysburg and purchased a lot from his father in Gaysport and has contracted with Lloyd & Co., for the putting up of a new house.

The farm of Joseph Snively, near Yellow Springs, in Catharine township, was sold on Saturday last by the assignee, Robert Smith, esq., to William Harnish, of East Hollidaysburg. Consideration, $3,936.

From the Charter Oak, Iowa, Times, dated August 18, and which, by the way, is the first issue of that paper, we learn that James P. Stewart, esq., has started in business in that new town in the banking business. H. N. Moore is president and Mr. Stewart is cashier. The prospects for Charter Oak becoming an enterprising and prosperous town are very flattering.

X The funeral of Lloyd Wise, whose death occurred at his home at Reservoir station on Monday morning last, took place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Lloyd was 19 years of age and his death was caused by consumption. He was an upright and exemplary young man. It is only six weeks ago since an older brother died of the same fatal disease. The interment will take place in the Geeseytown cemetery.

John Cottrell

John was born in Miami County, Ohio to Hollister "Holl" R. and Elizabeth (Westfall) Cottrell.

When the call came for volunteers to preserve the Union he answered that call, though but a lad. He enlisted as a private to Company F of the 71st Ohio Infantry along with his dad. He was in active service from the time of his enlistment until he was mustered out four years later. At the battle of Shiloh he received a severe wound in the head and was left on the field with the dead, but was later found and in time was able to return to his company.

At the close of the war he returned to his home in Ohio, and on the 23rd day of September, 1866, was united in marriage to Sarah Johnson. Soon after, with her parents, they moved to Bond county, Illinois, settling near Greenville. To this union were born one daughter, Martha Ann (Mattie) and a son, who died in infancy and was buried with his mother, the 18th day of January, 1872.

After their demise he returned to Ohio, leaving his daughter, then five years old, with his parents, and later returned to Mulberry Grove, Illinois. On November 29, 1883, he was united in marriage with Candis Bailey. To this union was one daughter Anna.

OBITUARY

Catherine Longanecker was born in Dauphin county, Pa., March 16, 1817 and departed this life Sept. 3, 1898, aged 81 years, 3 months, and 21 days.

In 1822 she moved with her parents near Lebanon, Ohio, and later to Darke county, Ohio, where she spent the remainder of her life. She was one of 11 children - 5 boys and 6 girls - all of whom excepting one sister and one brother have gone to their long home.

She was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Daniel Wise, Dec. 26, 1841, with whom she lived to share the pleasures and sorrows of life until he was called away by the relentless hand of death, Sept. 18, 1869, at the age of 53 years, 2 months and 6 days.

She was the mother of 9 children - 7 boys and 2 girls, all except one son surviving her, and all except Samuel being present at the funeral.

She had 42 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren, 34 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren having gone on before.

Her last sickness was but of three weeks duration, beginning with a nervous chill from which she never recovered.

She was a devoted and faithful christian mother and leaves a vacancy in the home circle, in the church and in the community which will be keenly felt.

copied from a newspaper clipping in the files of Ira Brown, Kettering, Ohio.

The old Wise farm is south of Darke County Airport, Spillers Field, on Wise Road.

Obituary

Benj. (S.) Wise was born in Richland Township, Darke Co., Ohio, April 17, 1843, departed this life at his home in Dawn, Ohio, July 15, 1902, aged 59 years, 2 months and 28 days. December 1, 1867, he was united in marriage with Anna M. Coppess who 6 years ago preceded him to the spirit world.

To this union were born seven children, four sons three daughters, of whom the eldest departed this life in infancy.

The deceased was a member of the 40th O.V.I and had served nearly three years in defense of his government in the Civil War. He was also an honorable member of Mill Castle Knights of the Golden Eagle, at Webster.

He was a good citizen, a kind father and enjoyed the love and esteem of his children, relatives and the members of the community in which he lived.

He leaves six children - three sons and three daughters - five brothers and two sisters, and many friends to mourn his departure.

Funeral services were held from the Stelvideo Christian church, July 17, conducted by Rev. Thompson, of Ansonia. Interment in Coppess cemetery by undertaker Marker of Versailles.

CARD OF THANKS

We hereby extend our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for the many kind helps and sympathy shown during the illness of our beloved father, B. L. Wise, and in our bereavement.

Children

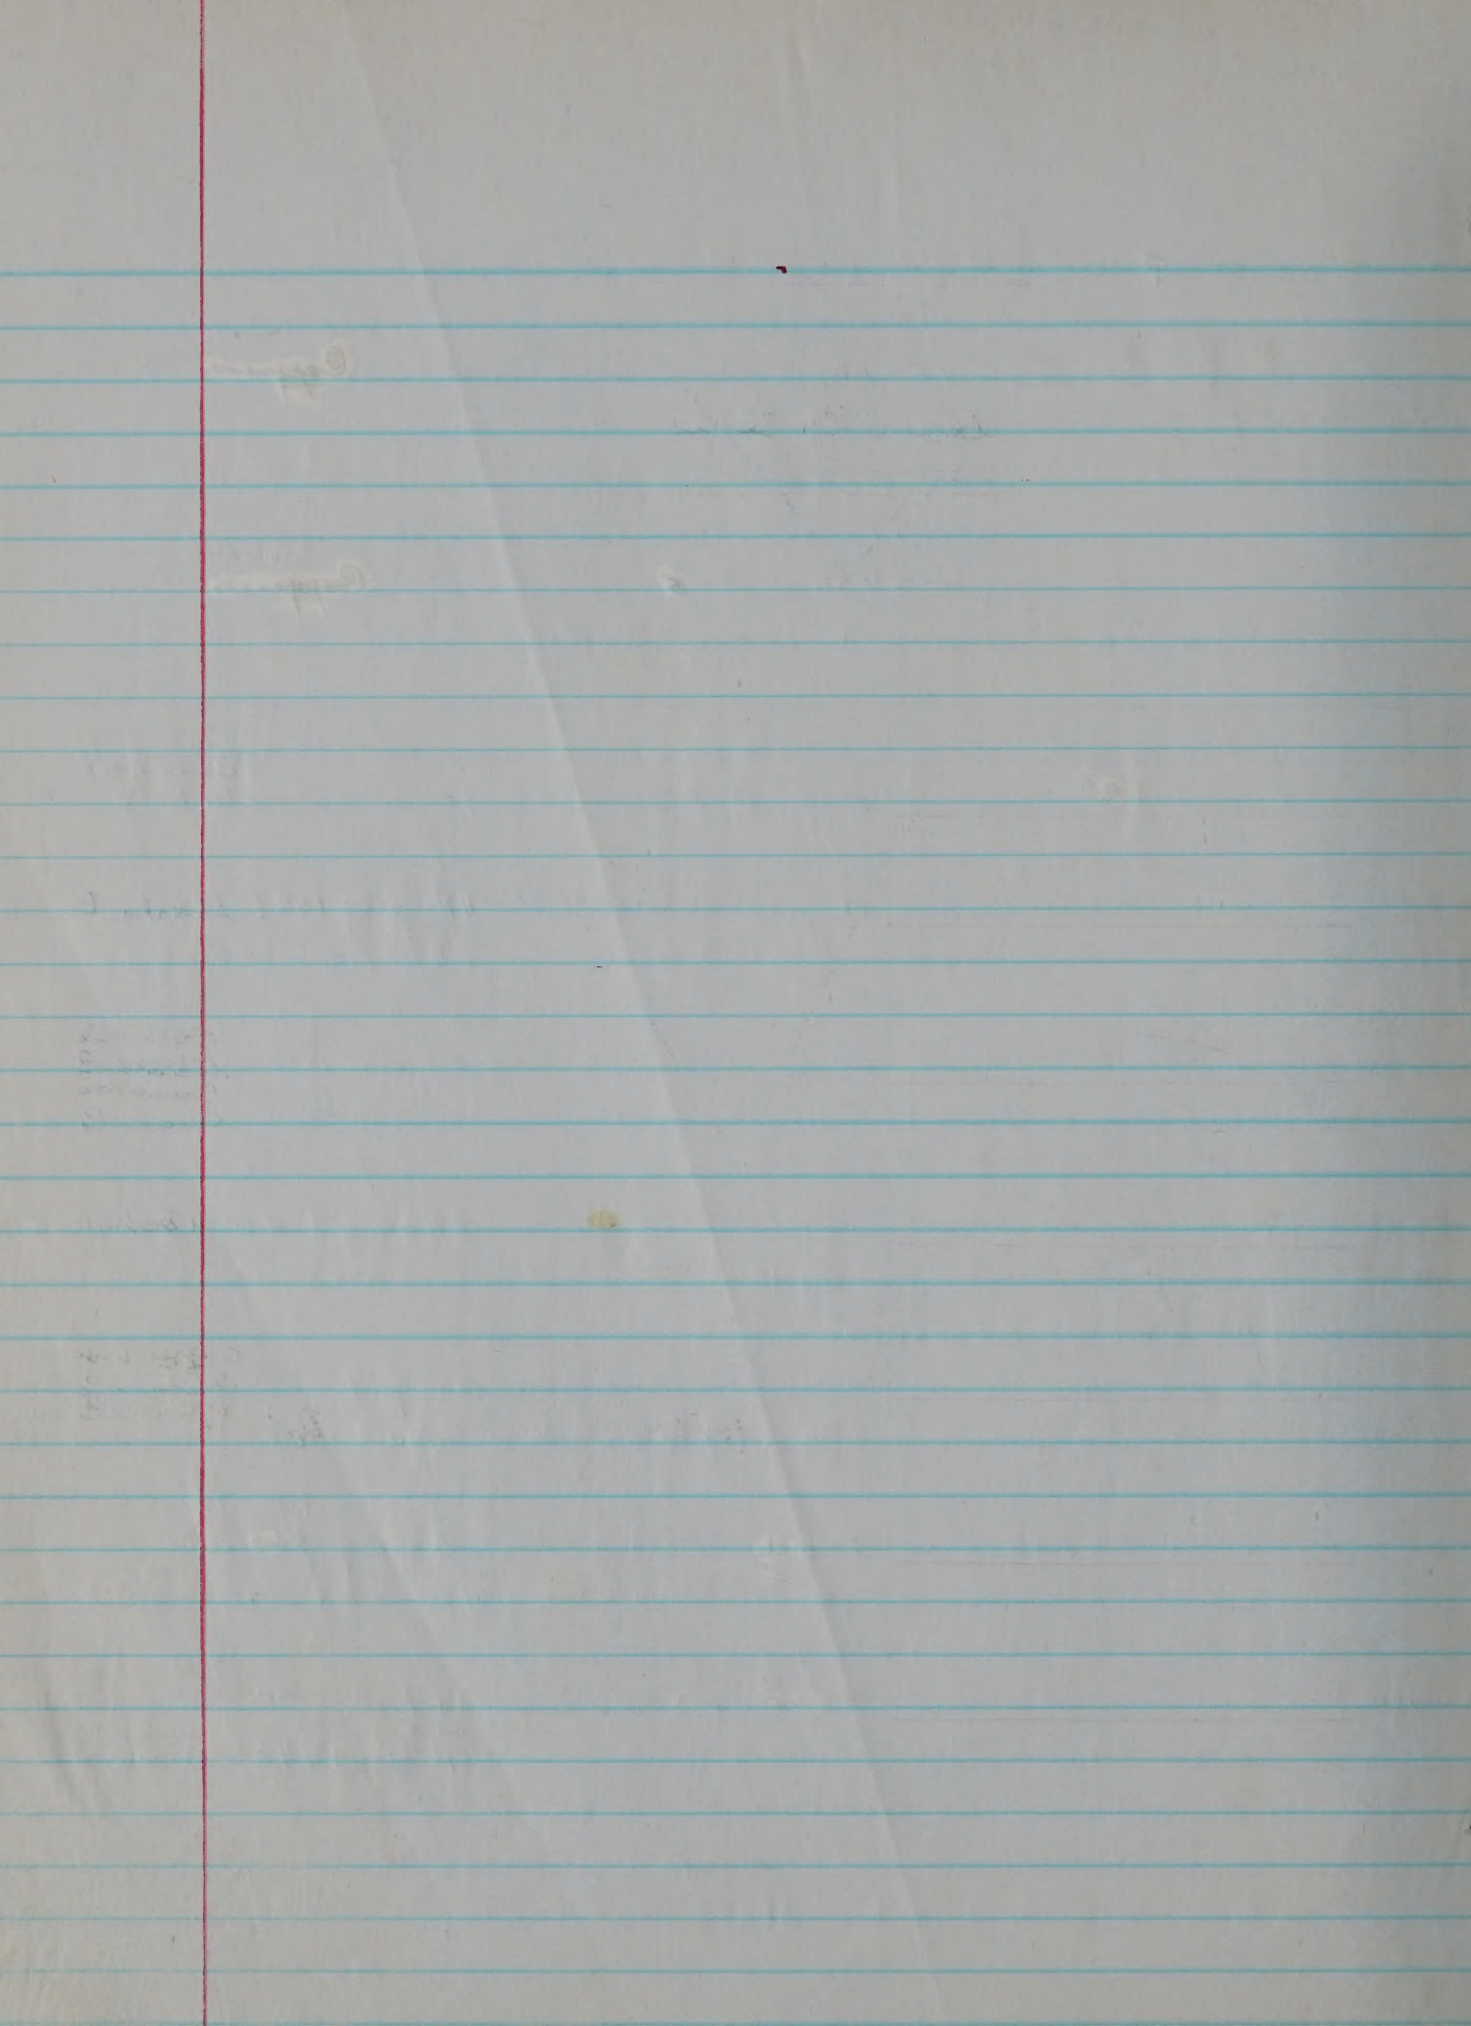

NOTE: There is a slight discrepancy in the middle initial used in the main part of the article and the card of thanks. The correct initial is "L."

The above information was copied from a newspaper clipping in the files of Ira Brown, Kettering, Ohio.

SEE NOTE ON BACK

Some of the children shown are from information that is hard to prove and from the Weir cemetery information.

#1 John is on the cemetery list next to Jacob.

#6 & 9 are on the cemetery list next to Sally.

It appears that they are their children and I put them on the family sheet. There is a problem with birth dates on Nancy and Magdalena. Magdalena's information on the cemetery listing is questionable.

I'm writing this note to let people know that it is possible that these children are not Jacob and Sally's.

My feeling is that they are theirs.

LEVI IS WD.

W/DAU.
LYDIA

THERE IS SOME CONFUSION ON WHOSE KIDS ARE WHO'S.

I THINK THEY ARE ALL
SARAH FRAZIER'S. I CAN'T FIND A BIRTH DATE ON
SARAH FRAZIER. LEVI'S
GM OBIT SAYS HE WAS MARRIED TWICE AND HIS SECOND DIED 15 YRS BEFORE
HE DID. THAT WOULD BE SARAH AMICK.

THE 1900 CENSUS SAYS THAT
HE 1ST MARRIED 22 YRS AGO
WHICH WOULD BE TO
SARAH FRAZIER. IF SHE IS
THE SARAH WITH HIM IN 1900
SHE WAS BORN C. 1838 OR 1839
SO BOTH SARAH'S WERE BORN
ABOUT THE SAME TIME.?

ANOTHER QUESTION?

LYDIA WAS BORN C. 1865. ?
HE DIDN'T MARRY UNTIL 1868.

HAVE FOUND NO EXPLANATION
BUT LYDIA IS ALWAYS THAT AGE IN EVERY CENSUS SO I BELIEVE THE AGE
IS CORRECT.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Obituary.

Benjamin Wise was born in Dark county Ohio, Feb. 22th
1837. Departed this life Oct.
11th 1921, after an illness of 13 days, aged 84 years, 7 months and 19 days.

He was united in marriage to Sarah Miller in 1858 and to this union were born 11 children, 1
son and 1 daughter preceeded him to the spirit world.

He leaves to mourn a wife, 5 sons, 4 daughters, 2 brothers, 2
sisters and a host of relatives and friends.

On Feb. 11, 1858, he came to the present home 1½ miles east of Wakarusa. He joined the old order German Baptist church in 1859.

Parsnips And Salsify May Be Left Out All Winter

Parsnips and salsify are hardy, and the roots may be safely left in place thru the winter. As early in the spring as they can be handled and before they start into growth, experts of the United States Department of Agriculture advise, the roots should be dug, carefully sorted, and the selected ones immediately reset from 3 to 5 feet apart. They will start into growth at once, and generally will produce a good crop of seed. The parsnip can be safely left in place until the seed crop is fully ripe, when it can be cut and stored under shelter till dry. The heads of salsify open out as they ripen, and unless gathered the seed will be blown away. It is necessary, therefore, to gather the opening heads about noon of every sunny day and spread them in an airy place until dry, when the seed
can be rubbed out, winnowed, and stored.

Six Laws Of Child Safety

Our children, the end and center of our lives, for whom our people deny themselves, and of whose future they daily dream are in much peril today from automobiles. As the cars grow thicker on the streets the number of accidents increase, and many are the little ones hurled in a minute to a premature grave.

Twenty-two Massachusetts cities gave last summer on their play-grounds instruction to children on safety. They laid down six rules for children to obey as follows:

1. Don't run in front of an auto.
2. Don't play in the streets
where autos pass.
3. Don't chase a playmate
from the sidewalk to the street.
4. Don't catch on behind a motor truck.
5. Don't take hold of an auto
while riding a bicycle.
6. Don't run out from behind a standing auto or school wagon.

It would be a fine idea to post these rules conspicuously in all lower grade school rooms in Wakarusa.

Mrs. Anna Miller of Goshen, has been visiting her grand-children and great-grandchildren, also her great-great-grandchild in this vicinity. The Holdeman congregation also enjoyed her presence at communion Sunday.
Sunday evening she accompanied Henry Martin and family to Nappanee to hear Abram Metzler preach. Grandma Miller is still very active and handy with the needle. Her presence is an inspiration to God's people.

YOUTH IS ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF MONEY ORDER

BERTON S. HENNEY TAKEN TO INDIANAPOLIS FOR HEARING.

Charged With Theft of $16 Money Order From Postal Station at Elkhart.
130-10-3-4-5

Berton S. Henney, nineteen years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Henney of north of Goshen, was arrested by United States Deputy Marshal C. A. Sittson, of New Albany, Wednesday afternoon, charged with the theft of a postoffice money order. He was taken to Indianapolis and will be arraigned before Judge Anderson in the federal court. His father accompanied the youth and the deputy marshal.

Young Henney was employed in the Bucklen drug store at Elkhart, where a sub-station of the postoffice is maintained. He is charged with having taken a money order for $15 from a letter addressed to Mrs. Martha Cleaver, who lives on a rural route out of Elkhart.

GOOD-MARTIN.

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday, February, 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Martin of Reist, when their daughter, Selina, was united in marriage to Mr. C. M. Good. The ceremony was performed by Preacher Moses Schmitt, only the immediate relatives being present.—Youngstown, Alta, Canada, Plaindealer.

Moses Wise was born in Darke Co., Ohio, Sept. 27, 1842. Died in Wakarusa, Ind., Feb. 28, 1918 aged 75 years, 5 months, 1 day.

He was married to Susan Heckman, Dec. 24, 1865. To this union were born thirteen children, five of whom preceded him in death.

He located on a farm two miles east of Wakarusa, Ind., in 1866 and resided there until about eight years ago, when he moved to Wakarusa, where he remained until death.

He with his wife united with the Church of the Brethren about fifty years ago. He continued in that faith to the end.

The funeral was held last Sunday at Yellow Creek conducted by Elders Frank Kreider and C. Metzler.

Surviving to mourn his departure are his devoted wife and eight children, Harvey Wise of Wenatchee, Washington, Amanda Smeltzer of Nappanee, Ind., Samantha Beaver of Goshen, Ind., Amos Wise of Fonteinell, Ia., Martha Smeltzer and Elmira Wise of Wakarusa, Ind., Allen Wise of Elkhart, Ind., and Oliver Wise of Stockton, Cal.; also three brothers, one sister and fourteen grandchildren besides many other relatives and friends.

SAMMY PROVES HIM- SELF EQUAL TO A PRAYER EMERGENCY.

With the American Expeditionary Army, France (By Mail) —It was one big surprise for everyone in the machine gun company when the chaplain at last got Butch into the church for Sunday services. Butch is rated a pretty hard hombre—honest, efficient and faithful as they make them, but not very careful about his language and more than willing to scrap most anyone any time.

The chaplain got to him one day as Butch was splicing some harness for one of the mules. His line was about like this:

“Now Butch, I’m going to ask you to come to church Sunday morning. I know you don’t want to but I want you to come as a favor to me.

“If you were out selling lightning rods you’d at least expect a farmer to let you put one on his house for a trial. if it wasn’t going to cost him anything.

“Now, we’ve been good friends ever since I came to the regiment, haven’t we, Butch?”

Butch admitted they had been. So the chaplain pursued his advantage:

“Good,” he said. Now, I’m dealing in an article which I claim will cure a lot of troubles. I’m only asking you to try one sample—just once.”

Well, Butch was in church Sunday.

The chaplain had been called away just before services and a visiting chaplain occupied the Nill, Sister Barbara, daughter of Jacob and Christian[sic] Wise, was born near Bradford, Ohio, Nov. 7, 1844, and died Nov. 16, 1915, aged 71 years and 9 days. Nov. 25, 1866, she was married to Bro. Solomon Nill. To this union were born six children. One daughter died in infancy. The greater part of her life was spent in Darke and Preble Counties, Ohio, but since April, 1907, she has lived in California. Her parents were Ohio pioneers, and she bore a full share of the hardships and labors of that early day. She united with the Church of the Brethren at the age of eighteen and lived an unassuming but busy and consistent Christian life. She is survived by her aged companion, one daughter and four sons. Her companion being sick, funeral services were held at the home, near McFarland, Cal., by Bro. W. C. Hanawalt. Text, Acts 2: 36. Interment in the Inglewood Park cemetery, near Los Angeles—Joseph Nill, McFarland, Cal.

The Gospel Messenger, December 18, 1915, p. 823

Nill, Bro. Solomon, died at the home of his daughter, Mary, wife of Eld. H. A. Whisler, at McFarland, Cal., July 20, 1917. He was born in Dauphin County, Pa., Sept. 18, 1837. His ancestors were George and Mary (Glett) Nill, who had emigrated from Germany with several small children a few years before his birth. When he was yet a youth, the family moved to Darke County, Ohio, where Nov. 17, [sic] 1866, Bro. Nill married Barbara Wise. To them were born one daughter and four sons. All except one are members of the church. There are living seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Bro. Nill was devout and pious, with a conscience void of offense. His humility, kindness and generosity endeared him to all classes. Bro. Nill and Bro. Jacob Senseman organized a Sunday-school in a coopershop, in 1877. In course of time this Sunday-school was given its proper place in the church, and encouraged by those who at first doubted its prosperity. Later Bro. Nill moved to Preble County. Their children are scattered over various localities in the West. Brother and Sister Nill moved to McFarland, where all the children, except the eldest son, have also settled. Two years ago Sister Nill passed away. Her remains were laid to rest at Inglewood, where those of Bro. Nill were also laid, after the services July 20. Bro. Nill belonged to a family of peculiar longevity. All of his six brothers and sisters, grown to manhood and womanhood, have passed away in their eightieth year, or varying only a few months. Only one sister, now seventy-eight years old, remains.—W. C. Hanawalt, McFarland, Cal.
The Gospel Messenger, November 3, 1917, p. 702 [marriage date is the 25th]

120.10.3.5.11
Mummert, John, son of Joseph and Catherine Mummert, born Oct. 6, 1845 at York, Pa., died May 17, 1930. While yet a child he with his parents emigrated to Darke County, Ohio, where he grew to manhood. He united with the Church of the Brethren when a young man and later was called in the office of deacon in which he served forty-two years. Nov. 10, 1867, he married Eliza Ann Miller. To them were born three sons and a daughter. The sons died in childhood and his wife on Jul. 19, 1908. Oct. 9, 1915, he married Mrs. Margaret Smith. May 9, 1930, he was stricken with paralysis from which he suffered nine days. He leaves his wife, one daughter, two granddaughters, six stepchildren and three sisters. Funeral in Harris Creek church by his pastor, Bro. D. G. Berkebile. Interment in Harris Creek cemetery.—John Eikenberry, Bradford, Ohio.
The Gospel Messenger, June 28, 1930, p. 415

Description:
Containing records for approximately 123 million Americans, the 1930 United States Federal Census is the largest census released to date and is the most recent census available for public access. The census gives us a glimpse into the lives of Americans in 1930, and contains information about a household's family members and occupants including: birthplaces, occupations, immigration, citizenship, and military service. The names of those listed in the census are linked to actual images of the 1930 Census. Learn more...

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

JOSEPH WISE

Joseph Wise, 87 years old, died at eight o'clock Sunday evening at his home, three miles south-east of Wakarusa, on the old Wise homestead, where he had lived for 62 years. Death was caused by a complication of ailments, after an illness of five weeks. Mr. Wise is survived by three sons, Ira Wise of Elkhart; Eli and Elmer Wise, of Wakarusa; four daughters, Mrs. Samuel Tschupp, of Wakarusa, Mrs. Rufus Barringer, of Nappanee; and Misses Nancy and Nellie Wise, of Elkhart; seventeen grandchildren, and fifteen great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home and at 10:45 at the Union Center church, of which Mr. Wise was a member. The Rev. Christ Metzler and the Rev. John Frederick officiated and burial made in Union Center cemetery.

Uncle Joe was a life-long friend of the TRIBUNE. For years it was his custom whenever he came to town to visit this office.

Obituary.

ROSA ANN, wife of Joseph B.
Wise, was born May 28, 1847 and died April 11, 1908, aged 60 years, 10 months and 13 days.

She leaves besides a loving husband, four sons, three daughters,
one step-daughter, one brother,
two sisters, and twelve grand-children to mourn her departure. She was a faithful member of the German Baptist church for forty-one years.

Her kind and loving disposition endeared her to all and surround-her with many friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Revs. Daniel Wysong and David Anglemyer at Union Center church April 15th.

The bereaved family desire to return their heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors for their kindness during the sickness and death of our loved one.

MOSES B. WISE

MOSES B. WISE, a general farmer and representative citizen of Newberry Township, residing on his well improved farm of fifty- five acres, which is situated two miles southwest of Bloomer, was born on the old Moses Wise farm north of Bradford, Ohio, September 24, 1858. His parents were Moses and Elizabeth Wise.

The elder Moses Wise was born near Lebanon, Ohio, and died on his old home farm near Bradford, in November, 1897. He was twice married, his first wife, Elizabeth Burkett, being a native of Darke County, Ohio. She died April 8, 1860, when Moses B., the youngest of her thirteen children, was a babe of eighteen months. Moses Wise was married subsequently, to Mrs. Elizabeth (Sword) Ullery, and four children were born to that union.

Moses B. Wise was reared by his mother and remained on the home farm until his own marriage. This took place December 16, 1883, to Miss Anna Miller, who was, born in Newberry Township, Miami County, on the farm lying south of the present Wise home. She is a daughter of Joseph and Anna B. (Bashore) Miller and when she was six months old, her parents moved into Darke County where she was reared. The late Joseph Miller, who died March, 22, 1909, at the age of eighty-four years, was born on the same farm as his daughter, November 25, 1824, and at the time of his death, was the oldest native-born resident of the township.

He was the last one of a family of ten children. His long life had covered a very important period of history in this section and he could recall the time when the whole extent of fertile, improved farming land which makes this section one of the garden spots of the State, was covered by a dense forest growth. He could remember when his parents and the neighbors had to the long trip to Cincinnati in order to obtain the provisions necessary for subsistence. On December 4, 1851, he married Anna Bashore, a daughter of Jacob and Sarah Bashore, and they had six daughters and one son born to them. He is survived by his widow, four daughters and one son and twenty-eight grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren, and a large circle, of friends who long had lived under the kindly influence of his beneficent life. He was spared pain and suffering and seemed simply to pass away in the fullness of years. In the spring of 1854, he and wife were baptized in the Church of the Brethren and the Christian profession he then made he faithfully lived up to. He will be sadly missed from his accustomed place in the church.

After marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Wise went to housekeeping on a farm of eighty acres, situated just across the road from Wise homestead, in Darke County, living there for four and one-half years and then moved to a farm in Newberry Township residing there for five and one-half years, on March 8, 1894, settling on the present place. Mr. Wise here carries on a general farming line and devotes four acres to tobacco and a part of his acreage to pasturage for his stock. In addition to cultivating his own land, he operates 131 1/2 acres, which he rents from John Mummert. On June 2, 1897, Mr. Wise met with the misfortune of having his house burn down, but he immediately replaced it by the present large frame residence which has the appearance of comfort and stability. He also has improved his place by the erection of a substantial barn with dimensions of 36x76 feet and a tobacco shed, 24x50 feet in dimension. Mr. Wise is a man with very practical ideas and carries on his work systematically and successfully.

Mr. and Mrs. Wise have seven children. namely: Cora, Jesse, Joseph, Charles, Homer, Ella and Israel. Mr. Wise is a member of the Church of the Brethren. He takes no active part in politics, but he and family have always belonged to that class of citizens who uphold the law and through their quiet, exemplary lives, exert a strong influence for good in their community.

CONFUSION

THE 1900 & 1910 CENSUS BOTH SAY 17CH 16LVG
THOSE 17 ARE ALSO LISTED IN ROOTS WEBB.

THE CONFUSION IS THERE IS A RUTH dau b. 1902. ← she is gr dau.
SHE IS NOT INCLUDED IN THE 16LVG. SUSANNAH WOULD HAVE BEEN 56 YEARS OLD WHEN SHE WAS BORN. IS SHE REALLY A dau. OR A

GRANDDAUGHTER? ALSO

A VINDICATOR FOR SUSANNAH LIST A HEIDI AS A LIVING CHILD. SHE IS NEVER
IN THE CENSUS. THE VINDICATOR ARTICLE
DOES NOT SHOW HER AS MARRIED.

SHE WOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE 16LVG.
IS SHE REALLY A DAUGHTER?

DUE TO THE CONFUSION I DID NOT LIST
RUTH OR HEIDI ON THE FAMILY SHEET.

AN OBITUARY ON FINDAGRAVE STATES
AMANDA AS BEING THE YOUNGEST OF 18 CHILDREN. ? NOT SURE WHO 18 IS.

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File

The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Please Note

Submitter information is provided to help in the coordination of personal family history research. Use of this information for any other purpose, including marketing, advertising, or commercial solicitation, is strictly prohibited.

MOSES VAN SCOIK

Moses Van Scoik, 87, died at 1:20 o'clock Monday morning at his home in Dunlap. Death was due to infirmities of age.
 He was born in Harrison township December 6, 1852, the son of Harvey D. and Katherine Van
 Scoik. His marriage to Adeline
 Apple took place August 29, 1875.
 They had resided in Dunlap since 1910.
 Surviving are his widow; a son,
 Charles, of near Dunlap; four daughters, Clara at home, Mrs.
 Samuel O. Bigler and Mrs. Jones
 Whistler south of Elkhart and Mrs. Robert A. Hoover of Dunlap; 24 grandchi'dren and 32
 great-grandchildren.
 Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the home. * The Rev. Claud Studebaker officiated. Burial was made in the Prairie street cemetery Elkhart.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for their kind

Wise Family Graveyard

From page 86 of the book:

Cemetery Inscriptions of Newberry Township in Miami County Ohio
by Joseph H. Bosserman

Unused for over 100 years, this cemetery has returned to the wooded wilderness in which the first settlers found it. The land on which it lays was first deeded by the United States to Jacob Wise on 8 Oct 1808. This is recorded in Miami County, Ohio Deed Book 26, page 547. It is located in the southwest quarter of Section 15, Range 4, Township 10. It is sometimes called the "Old Loxley Cemetery" after the Benjamin Loxley family who owned the farm on which it is situated many years later. It is approximately 100 by 30 feet in area. The readings listed were taken on 2 Jul 1977 by Lois Ann Baker, Diane Schrader and Joseph H. Bosserman and compared against earlier lists taken by Mrs. Jay Minnich in 1956 and Mr. Don Bowman in 1976. Evidently, from the ruins, there were nearly twice as many burials than can now be accounted for.

In December 1982, Mr. Robert Wise Hill of Covington, Ohio told me: QUOTE: "Many of the graves were removed from this cemetery to the Old Harris Creek Cemetery in the early 1900's." jhb UNQUOTE

Cemetery Inscriptions of Newberry Township in Miami County Ohio
by Joseph H. Bowerman

Used for nearly one hundred years, this old burying ground is situated far on in a high state of decay. Many stones appear to be missing. It is located on a center line drawn between the two larger halves of section 18, township 9, range 5. It is very near a line drawn between sections 18 and 19. John Cable, an Elder of the German Baptist Church, came to Miami County between 1812 and 1814 and settled in Newberry Township near the site of this cemetery. It was his intention to have a church built on the site, however, this never materialized and the Church was built several miles on up the creek and is now known as the Harris Creek Church of the Brethren. At one time, a road ran from what is now (1979) State Route 48 just north of Livingston, westward down to the Stillwater River. This road lay half way between the Covington-Bradford Road and Klinger Road. It was actually the eastern terminus of what is now Klinger Road. This long forgotten road led to a ford on the Stillwater River where it crossed just north of the mouth of Harris Creek. From here it passed the grid road built by Dutch Deserment in 1815 and winding northwest up the valley along the millrace came to the Cable cemetery where it made a right angle and passed north several rods to end on what is now Klinger Road. The cemetery lies high on a bluff overlooking Harris Creek on its north.

Inspection taken on 15 July 1977 by Joseph H. Bowerman and compared against a list taken on 27 April 1975 by Don Bowerman.

Cemetery Inscriptions of Newberry Township in Miami County Ohio
by Joseph H. Bosserman

Unused for nearly one hundred years, this old burying ground is uncared for and in a high state of decay. Many stones appear to be missing. It is located on a center line drawn between the two lower halves of section 18, township 9, range 5. It is very near a line drawn between sections 18 and 19. John Cable, an Elder of the German Baptist Church, came to Miami County between 1812 and 1814 and settled in Newberry Township near the site of this cemetery. It was his intention to have a church built on the site, however, this never materialized and the Church was built several miles on up the creek and is now known as the Harris Creek Church of the Brethren. At one time, a road ran from what is now (1979) State Route 48 just north of Covington, westward down to the Stillwater River. This road lay half way between the Covington-Bradford Road and Klinger Road, but it was actually the eastern extension of what is now Klinger Road. This long forgotten road led to a ford on the Stillwater River where it crossed just north of the mouth of Harris Creek. From here it passed the grist mill built by Noah Davenport in 1815 and winding northwest up the valley along the millrace came to the Cable cemetery where it made a right angle and passed north several rods to end on what is now Klinger Road. The cemetery lies high on a bluff overlooking Harris Creek on its south.

From the size of this cemetery, it appears as many as half of the stones could be missing. As most of the stones are down and appear to have been "tossed about" no exact order could be listed. There are several field stones, both standing and down.

MILLER (HOKE) CEMETERY

Located on the old Jacob Y. Miller farm, on the east side of the lane just before arriving at the second set of farm buildings on this lane. This is on the north side of county road 38, between roads 9 and 11. About 1880 Henry Hoke became the owner of the farm and it then became known as the HOKE cemetery. About half of the markers are lying on the ground with several almost completely eroded. Rows are numbered from west to east and the graves numbered from south to north. First copied by Connie Ulery and Ethel Thews in the summer of 1970, members of the Elkhart County Genealogical Society. Oldest marker found is for John Miller who died June 11, 1856, father of Jacob Y. Cemetery rechecked, November 25, 1988.

Anthem

After payments made for just debts, funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, & purchase and erection of a monument for her grave, Catherine Maurer directed her executor, Dr. L. Bigler of Gettysburg, to pay the balance of money remaining to the Trustees of the New Harris Creek Cemetery. Said money is to be held as a trust fund by said trustees and invested by them, and the income only is to be used as follows: First, the said Trustees are to cause the cemetery known as the Jacob Wise Cemetery northeast of Bradford, Ohio, to be placed in good condition, and so kept in repair, using such expense as they may deem proper. The balance of said income is to be used by said trustees for the expense of repair and maintenance of the New Harris Creek Cemetery.

OBIT (1921) from Garst Museum for Susanna Miller nee Maurer

Sister Susanna Miller nee Maurer, daughter of Jacob & Sarah Maurer was born 1/2 mile east of Oakland on January 2, 1846 and died on May 4, 1921 at age 75y 4m 2d. She married Moses Miller in DCO on November 8, 1863. They were the parents of 17 children, 11 daughters and 6 sons, one daughter died in infancy. They also reared to maturity one grandchild, Ruth Miller. Six of their children have sought home in the Great West, the others are living in Ohio. (GET A COPY OF THIS OBIT).

OBIT 1924 MOSE MILLER PASSES AWAY. Darke County Farmer Dies Early Today at Age of 82 Years. Mose Miller, one of Darke County's oldest pioneer settlers passed away at his home this morning at 6 o'clock from the infirmities of old age and a complication of diseases. He had lived for many years at the farm where he died, 4 1/2 miles NE of Greenville. He was preceded in death about three years ago by his wife. They were the parents of 15 children, all whom survive. (her obit says ¹⁷ children). Two daughters, Mrs. Catherine Hoke and Mrs. Elizabeth Laird^{Leas} reside in Greenville. Funeral 1 o'clock Thursday from Oakland Church under the auspices of Rev. Flory. Another obit states the funeral cortege will leave the farm residence at 12:30. Burial will be made in Harris Creek Cemetery. (an earlier obit states funeral services cannot be definitely made until word is received from several of the daughters who live in CA.

Used for nearly 100 years, in which the first settlers found it. The land on which by the United States to Jacob Wise on 8 Oct. 1808. This is recorded in Miami County, Ohio Deed Book 26, page 547. It is located in the southwest quarter of Section 15, Range 4, Township 10. It is sometimes called the "Old Loxley Cemetery" after the Benjamin F. Loxley Family who owned the farm on which it is situated many years later. It is approximately 100 by 30 feet in area. The readings listed here were taken on 2 July 1977 by Lois Ann Baker, Diane Schrader and Joseph H. Bosserman and compared against earlier lists taken by Mrs. Jay Minnich in 1956 and Mr. Don Bowman in 1976. Evidently, from the ruins, there were nearly twice as many burials than can now be accounted for.

In December 1982, Mr. Robert Wise Hill of Covington, Ohio told me: "Many of the graves were removed from this cemetery to the Old Harris Creek cemetery early 1900's."

Wife of David Wise (son of Samuel 1781-1841). They had five children: Aaron, Susan, Elizabeth, John Daniel, and Hester aka Hettie Greider.

I owe a debt of gratitude to L.A., coordinator for the Tippecanoe County Indiana Pioneer Cemetery Restoration Project (and the State INPCRP!), for showing me the ropes and working hard on cleaning, repairing, and reading stones in the Wise Cemetery. Thanks L.A.! I enjoyed every minute of it.

I put this Thank You note in this particular posting because you can see from the two photos of this stone, what a difference there is after cleaning. "Elizabeth, wife of" was not visible before cleaning. I thought I had two Davids, instead of David and Elizabeth.

Birth: Aug. 8, 1816
Death: Mar. 17, 1872

The marker is the first one to the right of Leonard's (as you're facing the markers) along the fence. To the left of Leonard's marker is the one for his second wife Elizabeth (Kuns) (Shively) (Harshbarger) Wise (29 Sep 1818 - 13 Oct 1889).

Here's what I think the marker says.

Line 1 - "Catherine"
 Line 2 - German for "wife of"? The first part looks like "Frau".
 Line 3 - "Leonard Wise" (maybe with Leonard spelled differently, like Leonhard?)
 Line 4 - German for "died"?
 Line 5 - The death date, "(month) 17, 1872". I assume the month is in German, and don't know what it is for sure, but I think it's March.
 Line 6 - German for "aged"?
 Line 7 - "55 yrs, 7 m, 9 d"

The Wolf/Cripe genealogy lists Catherine (Eyman) Wise's birth date as 1818, and her death date as about 1872. It says she died in Carroll Co., but doesn't say where she was buried. Assuming this marker is hers, and that the death month is March, based on her age at death her birth date would actually be 8 Aug 1816, not 1818. A birth date of 8 Aug 1816 is consistent with her age as listed in the censuses of 1850 (34, enumerated on 9 Aug 1850), 1860 (43 on 31 Jul 1860), and 1870 (53 on 23 Jul 1870).

John Wise death notice

Carroll County Citizen Sat. May 30 , 1896 P.1 c.4

— Last Sunday morning John Wise, Jr., died at his home in this city after a long illness with cancer of the stomach. He was born in this county October 20, 1840, and all his life, except the past year, was spent on a farm. On September 3, 1876, he was married to Mary Rosenberger, who, with four sons and two daughters, survive. The funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Rev. McCorkle, of Idaville, officiating. Interment took place in the Nebo cemetery. The funeral was largely attended.

Issa Eva Wise

Death of Mrs. Amos Wise.

Issa Eva Wise, wife of Amos Wise, died Friday of last week, aged twenty years. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eikenbery. Her death is a sad one. She was married about fifteen months ago and by her death an infant babe is left motherless. The funeral services were conducted last Saturday from the Dunkard church, in Flora, Rev. McCorkle officiating. The remains were interred in the Moss cemetery.

Her two brothers, Henry T. Wise, Rockfield, and William Wise, New York, and a sister, Mrs. Arthur Wagon, Chicago.

Friends may call after noon
Wednesday at the Patrick Funeral home where final rites will be conducted by the Rev. Frank Bridge at 2 p.m. Thursday. Burial will be in the Moss cemetery east of Delphi.

1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the project. It describes the purpose of the study and the objectives that were set at the beginning. It also provides a brief overview of the methodology that was used to collect and analyze the data.

2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the data that was collected. It includes information about the sample size, the demographic characteristics of the participants, and the specific measures that were used to assess the variables of interest.

3. The third part of the report is a presentation of the results of the study. It includes a series of tables and figures that show the mean scores, standard deviations, and correlations between the different variables. It also includes a series of paragraphs that describe the patterns of the data and the statistical tests that were used to evaluate the hypotheses.

4. The fourth part of the report is a discussion of the findings and their implications. It compares the results of the study to the previous research in the field and discusses the strengths and limitations of the study. It also provides some suggestions for future research and practical applications of the findings.

Injuries Fatal To Preble County Man

David Boomershine, Former Resident of Community, Hit By Auto Friday Evening

SURVIVORS INCLUDE A
SISTER RESIDING HERE

David Boomershine, 74, residing several miles west of West Alexandria, former resident of the vicinity southeast of Lewisburg and a brother of Mrs. Alice Rape of near here, died early Saturday morning in Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, from injuries sustained Friday evening about 5 o'clock when struck by an automobile driven by E. R. Fawley, Dayton. He sustained a fractured skull, crushed chest and numerous cuts and bruises.

The accident occurred near Mr. Boomershine's home on the Eaton pike at the Panis's Fork bridge. Mr. Boomershine, whose hearing and sight were impaired, was walking along the pike and is said to have become confused and stepped directly in the path of the Fawley car. Mr. Fawley applied his brakes and swerved his car in an effort to avert the accident, but was unable to avoid hitting the man.

After an investigation by Sheriff John Fahrenholz and Coroner C. M. Traffinger of this county, the accident was held to have been unavoidable and Fawley was exonerated from any blame for the fatality. Brakes on his car were tested and found in perfect condition.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at the home of his son, Edward, in Brookville. Interment was in the cemetery at Arlington.

Survivors are his wife by a third marriage; four sons, Edward, Brookville; Harley, Bellecenter, Logan county; Clarence, Rossburg, and William, Meridian, Miss.; five daughters, Mrs. Dora Lesure and Mrs. Lottie Avery, Dayton; Goldie Boomershine, Laura; Mrs. Ella Fisher, Shepherd, Mich., and Mrs. Jennie Hiestand, Rossburg; three brothers, William, Lexington; Harvey, west of Eaton; Alonzo, Gratiot, and four sisters, Mrs. Alice Rape, Lewisburg; Mrs. Rose Croomore, Gratiot; Mrs. Louisa Medlar and Mrs. Laura Kepler, Dayton. Mrs. Harry Brock of Lewisburg was a niece.

Deaths and Funerals

John Herby
John Herby, for fifty years a resident of Newton, died at his home at 828 Oak on Saturday night at the age of 83 years, two months and eleven days.
Mr. Herby owned a meat market here for many years and was well known in Newton thru his retail trade and about the county among stock men, who composed the source of his market in the early days. Mr. Herby's business integrity was never questioned and he was respected as an honest and upright citizen in all of his business and social relations.
He was born in England on July 8, 1848, and when he was six months old, his parents crossed the Atlantic and lived in New York City for two years. From there the family moved to Dayton, O., where he grew to manhood. He was married in Dayton, Ohio to Elizabeth Woodin Wise, on February 2, 1876. The two came to Harvey county in 1881, which place has continued to be their home with the exception of a few years spent in California.
His son, Harry Herby died at Bethel hospital a few months ago following an illness of several years. Mrs. Charles Jensen who is living at Santa Monica, Cal., was reared by Mr. and Mrs. Herby as a daughter. Surviving relatives are his wife and four nephews and one niece. These are Charles and Walter Hart of this city, Floyd Hart of Sacramento, Calif., Harry Hart of Wichita and Miss Orva Hart of this city.
Mr. Herby was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of this city.
The funeral services will be held on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the Sprinkler Mortuary, the Rev. Joseph E. Coe officiating. Pall bearers will be A. E. Hurford, C. L. Gray, Thomas Brooks, Charles Phillips, Edward Cookson and Charles Kinnear.
Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.
Mrs. A. G. Moore-Obituary
Maude A. Fleener, daughter of J. H. and Gubia Fleener, was born March 7, 1870 in Grant county, Indiana. She came to Kansas with her parents in 1884 settling at Sunnysdale, in Sedgewick county. Later she moved to Jetmore, in Hodgman county, and then to Rush county, teaching school in these two counties for a number of years.
In the year 1889, she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church remaining a member until the time of her death. She taught a class in the Sunday school for many years until failing health made it necessary for her to give up this much enjoyed service. She was especially liked by the children and young people, and met with unusual success. Various forms of welfare activities also occupied much of her time and attention.
She was married to L. M. Bydler, a locomotive engineer with the Santa Fe, at Nickerson, Kansas in March, 1897. The same year, they came to Newton with the transfer of the shops to this city. Her husband was killed in a railroad accident near Albuquerque, New Mexico, May 16, 1909, his body being laid to rest in Greenwood cemetery, this city. Soon after this, Mrs.

Bydler went to California where she has since made her home.
On December 25, 1919 she was married to A. G. Moore at Los Angeles, California.
For many years Mrs. Moore has been in delicate health and during the past few months she has endured much suffering, but always with Christian fortitude.
The angel of death came to release her from bodily pain, Monday evening, September 14, 1931, having attained the age of 61 years, seven months and seven days. She leaves her husband, two brothers, William A. and Lawrence W. Fleener, five nephews and two nieces, besides other relatives and many friends.
Funeral services were conducted at 3 o'clock, September 19, 1931 at the Evangelical church by the pastor, C. F. Hartmann. A quartet composed of Mrs. W. M. Miller, Miss Effie Blough, A. B. Becker and Carl Messner, accompanied by Mrs. E. E. Erffmeyer, sang favorite hymns. The pall bearers were Messrs C. A. Young, Bernard Murphy, J. Ross Fugate, T. J. Davis, Marvin Todd and E. M. Archer. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery in charge of Henry J. Sprinkler of the Sprinkler Mortuary.
Mrs. D. H. Siemans
Funeral services for Mrs. D. H. Siemans, of Burrton who passed away at the Halstead hospital early Saturday morning will be held at the home in Burrton Tuesday noon at 12:30 and at the Hoffnungsau church, five miles southeast of Inman, at 2:30. Interment will be made in the Hoffnungsau cemetery.
Church Activities
4-M Class
Mrs. O. C. Childs was elected president of the 4-M class for the coming year at the regular meeting held on Friday evening on the lawn at the S. C. Reep home at 606 Southeast Third. Other officers are Mrs. Harvey Nettouer, vice-president; Mrs. J. A. Herring, secretary; and Mrs. Ray Tullis, treasurer.
Mrs. J. E. Coe, read a letter from Rev. Bisbee of Baroda, India, which told of some of his experiences and those of the student preacher that the class is supporting. Fifty dollars due on the pledge to the support of the student preacher was paid Friday night.
Cooling refreshments were served during the social hour at which time some of the more enthusiastic played croquet while others looked on and visited.
New Roof Placed on "Boat House" at Park
Taking advantage of the dull in work, and of the weather conditions, City Manager Brode put a force of his men to work last week re-roofing the "Boat House" at Athletic park. The work was done none too soon.
This structure was erected years ago and was at first used as a "floral hall" in connection with the old Harvey County Fair. It was later moved to its present location after the dam was built, and has since been used as a free storage place for privately owned boats. It has also furnished housing for the park benches in the winter, as well as for tools, implements and other equipment of the street and park department.

SOCIETY

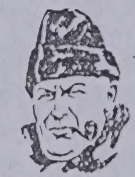

East-Cressler
The marriage of Miss Bessie Virginia East of Corinth, Miss., and Mr. Edward Payson Cressler, Jr., took place at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, September 20, 1931 at the home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Cressler, 223 East Eighth. The service was read by the Rev. S. L. Hagan, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church of this city.
Mrs. Cressler is a former student of the University of Mississippi. Mr. and Mrs. Cressler, Jr., left by motor for Lawrence, Kas., where Mr. Cressler is enrolled as a senior at Kansas university.
Goertz-Rosfeld
As twilight fell Sunday evening the Rev. Frederick J. Nisi said the words that joined the lives of Miss Helen Goertz and Mr. Louis Rosfeld at the Emmanuel Evangelical church on West Seventh street.
The ceremony was performed in the presence of the relatives and friends of the couple. Just previous to the service, Mrs. H. L. Williamson sang "At Dawning" and "Oh, Promise Me", accompanied by Miss Roma Green at the piano. Miss Green then swung into the opening bars of Mendelssohn's wedding march to which the couple took their places, accompanied by his brother, Lawrence, as best man and the bride's sister, Miss Charlotte Goertz, as maid of honor. Little Eugenia Williamson, preceded the party as flower girl.
Following the ceremony Miss Green played the wedding march from Lohengrin to which the couple passed to the back of the church for felicitations.
The bride was lovely in a white lace and chiffon dress made in floor length style with which she wore a white lace veil caught on the head in orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of roses. The bride's maid wore a frock of blue crepe and the little flower girl, yellow organ-die.
A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents following the ceremony and last evening friends gathered in large numbers there to offer congratulations.
The bride is a daughter of John Goertz, who lives two miles east of town on 50s. She has for the past three years been a maid in the Harvey L. Williamson home, where she has not only endeared herself to the family, but has learned those accomplishments which will make her a valuable helpmate to her husband.
The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rosfeld who reside east of town on First street. He is an industrious and reliable young man, and has proved so valuable to his father, that the latter has placed him on one of his farms ten miles east of Newton, where the groom has his home ready for his bride.
The couple will be at home immediately to their friends.
What has become of the desk motto, along with other mottoes, "the man worth while is the man who can smile"? What this country needs is more Mrs. Fezziwigs, described in Dickens' Christmas Carol: "In came Mrs. Fezziwig, one vast substantial smile," suggests the Topeka Capital.
—Ice cold water melons 1 1/4 lb., guaranteed. Charlsen's Fruit Market, 105 S. Kansas Ave.

IRA SPITLER DIES; RITES WEDNESDAY

Retired Columbia Township Farmer Dies Following A Long Illness At Age Of 82
 Ira E. Spitler, 82, well-known retired Columbia township farmer, died at 2:50 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Linvill Memorial hospital where he was entered as a patient ten days ago. In failing health for considerable time, he previously had been a patient at the Columbia Convalescent home.

Mr. Spitler was a native of Whitley county and spent his entire life here. He was born on May 25, 1860. His wife died on August 6, 1921 and two daughters preceded him in death. Miss Naomi Spitler who died on June 24, 1939, and Mrs. Marion Egolf, who died last August 4. He is survived by but one sister, Mrs. E. W. Lott, of Fort Wayne.

Until his retirement several years ago, Mr. Spitler operated a farm a short distance east of the city limits on the Raber road.

The body has been removed to Luckenbill's Sons' Funeral Home where friends will be received until the funeral hour.

The funeral services, in charge of Rev. John B. Hoestine, pastor of Grace Lutheran church, will be conducted at 10 a.m. Wednesday in the funeral home. Burial will be made in Greenhill cemetery.

LOCAL WOMAN SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS

Naomi I. Spitler Dies at Father's Home
 Saturday Night - Rites to Be Held From Luckenbill Funeral Home Tuesday.

An illness of a year's duration due to carcinoma caused the death of Naomi I. Spitler, 38, lifelong resident of the county and one of its best known women, Saturday night at 10 o'clock. Death occurred at the home of her father, Ira Spitler, near this city. She was a hospital patient several times but medical science could not subdue the dread disease. Possessed of a disposition that was kind and courageous she bore her affliction with unusual fortitude. Since the death of her mother in 1921, Miss Spitler had been in charge of her father's home, and for several years had also been employed in the license bureau office in this city. She was known as a most efficient, faithful and courteous employee. She was born November 6, 1901, to Ira and Mary Ann Humbarger Spitler in Whitley county. Her aged father and a half-sister, Mrs. Marion Egolf, of this city, are her closest survivors. A half-brother, Charles Baum, died in 1925. Funeral rights will be held from the Luckenbill Funeral Home, where friends will be received, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Paul Chalfant, of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. Friends may view the remains until the hour of the funeral. Burial will be made in Greenhill cemetery.

THE WISE FAMILY

Ancestors and allied family groups

of

GEORGE FRANKLIN WISE

FORWARD

When the idea of compiling a family history first came to mind, several thoughts presented themselves. The title was to be, "The Ancestors and Descendants of George Wise and Bertha Loy." The booklet would have three main parts: Part One- a pedigree chart showing direct lineage as far back as possible; Part Two- some family groups which would show siblings of our ancestors and include a little history; Part Three- the descendants of George and Bertha. In this, since it is current, entire families could be shown.

Time passed and the history wasn't compiled, altho Part Three was completed.

Then a reunion was set for 30 July 1977, to be held in Alton, Illinois. Hosting the affair were Alice and Homer Harder, Sr. and their children who live in Alton or the nearby area.

This prompted more action on the part of the compiler and Part Two, Chapter I came to be published. It is hoped that Part Two, Chapter II (The Loys) will be completed in time for the next reunion.

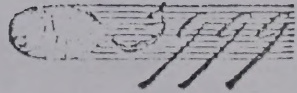

In the meantime, this ancestor hunter welcomes all questions, comments, corrections and additions. As is usual, much more data is in the editor's files than appears in this booklet

It is to be hoped that someone among the readers will pick up the clues herein given and find additional information. With others working on this project, enough material might be found to warrant publishing of a supplement or maybe, an annual newsletter.

While southwest Ohio has been researched, more could be done by way of documentation and pictures. The state of Pennsylvania remains to be done: for the Wises, a look into Huntingdon Co. Pa., for the Puderbaughs-Chambersburg, Franklin Co., Bedford Co. Special thanks should go to my family, to my late husband and my children for their help and encouragement. To my daughter, Faith Stern, residing near Washington D.C. who generously furnishes bed and board and personally escorted trips to various record sources in the area and often helps in the search, and to son, George, who had this booklet printed, and to son, David, who has assisted in copying needed material. My thanks also to other relatives who shared their knowledge and to a special cousin who patiently took me to visit Ohio court houses, libraries and cemeteries; and to brother-in-law, Ruben Spannaus, who had Part Three printed at his expense.

Probate Records

Estate of JOHN WISE, dec'd - Isaac Rudy, adms. (no case number, filed by first letter of surname)

Bond dated 9-14-1844 of $600.00 by Isaac Rudy with John H.C. Dill and Daniel Wise as sureties.

11-28-1844, Elizabeth Wise received $30.00 as widow for her years maintance.

Public sale was held October 11, 1844 and among items taken by widow was a German Bible and German Testament.

Receipt dated 1-1-1845 by Dr. Isaac Hostetter of Wayne township, Darke County for visits dated: 3-14-1842; 7-20-1843; 7-26-1843; 7-30-1843; 8-10-1843; and last visit on 2-5-1844.

After the deduction of the obligation to Daniel Wise of $1040.00, a balance of $142.32 was remaining, but there are no receipts or account to show how this was disbursed to heirs.

The 1850 Darke County, Ohio census: Richland township; page 471-471a lists Elizabeth Wise aged 74, born Pennsylvania living with Daniel Wise aged 34, born Pennsylvania and family.

Note: The following estate is now stored in the Darke County Home annex and although they were previously under the jurisdiction of the Probate Court, but are now under the jurisdiction of the Darke County Commissioners. There is no photocopy service available at the Home; however, it is possible that this might(?) be accomplished by writing to the Commissioners, but probably then only by assuming that they will do it (sending your check) rather than asking them beforehand.

The Wise Family

John Wise, our earliest Wise ancestor came from Pennsylvania early in the 1830's. He is not listed in the Ohio 1830 census, but he bought land in Darke County in 1833. He was married and brought his wife and several children with him to Ohio. According to Biographical History of Darke County, Lewis Publishing Company, 1900, John's son, Daniel, was about 18 years old when he came to Ohio. There were other children in the family. Perhaps Daniel was the oldest.

In 1844 John gave a "life lease" of $1040.00 and his farm to Daniel for Daniel's promise to care for his parents for the rest of their lives. The deed is recorded in Darke County Deed Book Y-1, page 552. Daniel's agreement can be found in Deed Book N-1, page 518.

Page 3 of this family history shows an abstract of the deeds and agreement in addition to a few interesting items pertaining to the settlement of the estate. John died July 1844.

Ethel Shively, a first cousin of George Wise, gave these as the names of John and Elizabeth's children: ⁷Daniel, ¹Polly, ⁴Susie, ³Jacob, ⁶Betty, ²John, ⁸David.

Jacob, listed above, married Emily Clapper. Their daughter, Susan, married Jacob Moses. "Annie Oakley" was the sixth child of their family of eight. One of the older children died young. The living children were: Mary Jane, Lydia, Elizabeth, Sarah Ellen, Phoebe Ann, John and Hulda. Phoebe Ann was called Annie by her sisters and later when fame came to her as a sharp-shooter she was known as Annie Oakley. More about Annie can be found in Dictionary of American Biography, vol. 13, pp. 603-04 and in Missie, an historical biography of Annie Oakley, by Annie Fern Swartwout. Annie Fern Swartwout was the daughter of Hulda. Annie Fern lived and traveled with her aunt for many years.

"Daniel Wise.... It is presumed that he was about eighteen years of age when he became a resident of Ohio, and he was reared under the conditions prevalent at that time, receiving such meager educational advantages as were afforded in the early subscription schools, which, like other farmer boys, he was permitted to attend for a brief time each year. He was inured to the hardships of frontier life, growing to be a strong and sturdy man physically and one of marked mental vigor. Politically he was an old-line Whig until the birth of the Republican Party, when he transferred his allegiance to the new party, which more clearly expressed his views in its code of principles and policies. He and his wife were members of the German Baptist church."--- from Biographical History of Darke Co. 1900.

Daniel Wise, born 12 July, 1816 Pa., died 18 Sept. 1869 married 26 Dec. 1841

Benjamin L. Wise farmed in Richland township, near the town of Dawn, formerly called Nevada. It is said that he followed the Dunkard religion. During the Civil War, Benjamin served in the Union Army for three years. He was in Co. G and also in Co. K, 40th Ohio Infantry Volunteers. He applied for a pension on 3 June 1891 but it was denied. His application number is 651,612. Benjamin died 15 July 1902 and is buried in Stelvideo Cemetery.

On 1 December 1867, Benjamin married Anna Marie Coppess born 17 Jan. 1849*. The 1850 census records say she was born in 1848. She died 24 Nov. 1895, and is buried in Stelvideo Cemetery.

* The cemetery records show her age as 46 years, 10 months, 7 days.

The children of Benjamin L. and Anna Marie(Coppess) Wise :

David C. Wise	b. 12 April 1868	d. 13 June 1871	History says he choked to death on a cherry seed.
Emma Adaline, Wise	b. 12 Jan. 1870	d. 17 July 1947	m. James Calvin Davidson
John Sebastian Wise	b. 13 Dec. 1872	d. 8 June 1950	m. June 1896, Mrs. Lillian (Hosket)Lyons. She had three children whenshe married John S. Wise. No children by John.
Mary Catherine ^{Wise} (Molly)	b. 27 Dec. 1874	d. 17 May 1952	m. Harve Fritz.
Harvey Amzy Wise ^{Wise}	b. 9 April 1877	d. 20 April 1949	m. Daisy Spillers
Bertha D. Idella,	b. 20 Feb. 1880	d. 26 July 1955	m. Milton Brown
George Franklin Wise	b. 25 Nov. 1882 or 25 Feb. 1883		m. Bertha Abigail Loy

The discrepancy probably came about because of difficulty of traveling in the winter months. The family always celebrated his birthday on Nov. 25. Years after his death, a birth certificate was obtained from Darke County. The February date came as a great surprise.

George and Bertha Loy were married in St. Louis, Mo. on Sept 22, 1912. George died 11 February, 1944 and is buried in Concordia Lutheran Cemetery, St. Louis, Row-1, Brave 27, Section C. Bertha died 21 August 1940 in St. Louis but is buried beside her mother, Matilda Ann Stuck, in Greenlawn Cemetery, Versailles, Ohio.

The Descendants of Benjamin L. and Anna Marie (Coppes) Wise

Emma(Wise) and James Davidson had one daughter, Pearl.

The 1790 Census lists 51 Wise families (various spellings) in Pennsylvania, 5 Longacres, 25 Longnakers in Pa., 42 Shanks, and 3 Puterbaughs. The Puterbaughs were John, George and Henry. These names show up in several other states in the same time period but the heaviest concentration of these families were in Pennsylvania.

Keeping in mind the numerous Wise families in Pa., I will repeat the following story about the first American Aeronaut excerpted from the Dictionary of American Biography and from The American Heritage Magazine, June 1955 issue: John Wise, balloonist, was of German and English descent. was educated in local schools. At age 14 he read a German newspaper account of a balloon voyage to Italy and decided to study aerostatic in practical fashion. His first experiments were with paper parachutes. Later, with a parachute made of 4 ox bladders he dropped a cat 30 ft.
from a housetop without injury to the animal. He developed a balloon varnish superior to those in use at that time. In the "Atlantic" he left St. Louis on July 1859 in one of the longest balloon trips ever made, to Henderson, N. Y., 1200 miles in 19 hours.
John at age 71 was lost in another balloon flight over Lake Michigan. He was born in Lancaster, Pa. in 1808. His son, Charles, also an aeronaut was from Philadelphia.

OBITUARY

Catharine Longanecker was born in Dauphin county, Pa., March 18, 1817 and departed this life Sept. 3, 1898, aged 81 years, 3 months, and 21 days.

In 1822 she moved with her parents near Lebanon, Ohio, and later to Darke county, Ohio, where she spent the remainder of her life. She was one of 11 children - 5 boys and 6 girls - all of whom excepting one sister and one brother have gone to their long home.

She was united in the holy bonds of matrimony with Daniel Wise, Dec. 26, 1841, with whom she lived to share the pleasures and sorrows of life until he was called away by the relentless hand of death, Sept. 18, 1869, at the age of 53 years, 2 months and 6 days.

She was the mother of 9 children - 7 boys and 2 girls, all except one son surviving her, and all except Samuel being present at the funeral.

She had 42 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren, 34 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren having gone on before.

Her last sickness was but of three weeks duration, beginning with a nervous chill from which she never recovered.

She was a devoted and faithful christian mother and leaves a vacancy in the home circle, in the church and in the community which will be keenly felt.

Obituary

Benj. S. Wise was born in Richland Township, Darke Co., Ohio, April 17, 1843, departed this life at his home in Dawn, Ohio, July 15, 1902, aged 59 years, 2 months and 28 days. December 1, 1867, he was united in marriage with Anna M. Coppess who 6 years ago preceded him to the spirit world.

To this union were born seven children, four sons three daughters, of whom the eldest departed this life in infancy.

The deceased was a member of the 40th O.V.I and had served nearly three years in defense of his government in the Civil War. He was also an honorable member of Mill Castle Knights of the Golden Eagle, at Webster.

He was a good citizen, a kind father and enjoyed the love and esteem of his children, relatives and the members of the community in which he lived.

He leaves six children - three sons and three daughters - five brothers and two sisters, and many friends to mourn his departure.

Funeral services were held from the Stelvideo Christian church, July 17, conducted by Rev. Thompson, of Ansonia. Interment in Coppess cemetery by undertaker Marker of Versailles.

CARD OF THANKS

We hereby extend our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends for the many kind helps and sympathy shown during the illness of our beloved father, B. L. Wise, and in our bereavement.

Children

NOTE: There is a slight discrepancy in the middle initial used in the main part of the article and the card of thanks. The correct initial is "L."

FALSE ALLEGATIONS

The Wise Poisoning Case Investigated. Reports unfounded

Upon request of relatives, Dr. Husted, coroner, had the remains of the late E. L. Wise of Dawn, disinterred, Monday of this week, and an autopsy was held by himself assisted by Dr. Anderson, of Greenville, Dr. Ballinger, of Webster, and Drs. Niederkorn, Ryan, and Guteruth, of Versailles. Dr. Husted had treated Wise for pneumonia and after his death a report was circulated that he had been poisoned by his housekeeper, Mrs. Witwer.

Notwithstanding the fact that Dr. Husted time and time again asserted that Wise's death was caused by pneumonia, the alarming gossip continued to be circulated until the family decided to have an investigation made.

Sheriff Milo Smith exhumed the body and the autopsy proved beyond a doubt to the attending physicians that Dr. Husted's diagnosis of the case had been correct, and that poisoning report was entirely unfounded.

Both lungs were found to be badly effected, in fact enough so, says one physician to kill two men.

The kidneys were also somewhat effected, but the evidences that his death was caused by pneumonia were unmistakably plain.

The stomach was found normal, and was removed and retained by the coroner for further investigation if necessary.

Although the remains had been interred July 17th, the body was in fine condition, having been embalmed by Leonard Marker, our popular undertaker.

The Puterbaughs

According to Ethel Shively, Elizabeth Puterbaugh was the wife of John Wise. The name, Puterbaugh and its variations, is a fairly common one in certain parts of Pennsylvania, southwest Ohio and across the line into Indiana. Several persons have submitted data on the family but there remains a gap in the lineage.

Marie Good, in her book on the Puterbaugh Family, cited court records for her research. Perhaps if another search is conducted in Chambersburg, Pa., Franklin Co. Pa., Bedford County, Pa., and in Washington Co. Md., the "link" we are seeking may be found.

Mrs. Good does leave a few loose ends, as every genealogical researcher must do, saying, "nothing more is known of so-and-so's descendants". This might be where we fit in.

The various spellings of the name are enough to boggle the mind. But keep them in mind we must, in order to trace them. There may be others but here are a few: Buterbaugh, Putesburg, Putterbaugh, Butersbo, Puderbaugh, Butterbaugh, Puterbaugh. It might even be Pewterbaugh, Puderbach or Purtlebaugh.

As interesting as the history of this family is, it is better to wait until positive proof of our connection is found.

The Shanks and the Longeneckers

Both of these families lived in Dauphin Co., Pa. As stated in the forward, research in this state remains to be done. Thus the early history of these families awaits discovery. Of the Shanks, at this point, the extent of our knowledge of them is only a little more than is shown on the direct line chart. In "Index to Will Books and Intestate Records of Lancaster Co., Pa. 1729-1850," by Eleanor Jane Fulton and Barbara Kendig Mylin, 1936, seventeen Longeneckers left wills and fifteen left Intestate Records. There are also eight Shanks of which four are Michaels.

In a Lineage Chart of Adam Shank, his descendants through one son are given, Adam is shown as a Swiss immigrant. His children are listed as: Mattie, Adam, Michael, Henry, Annie and Frances. Then follows a list of Henry's children and the allied families. Henry was born 6 Oct. 1777 in Lancaster Co. Pa. Two items of interest to us are: the name, Michael, in the list of Adam's (Sr.) children, and the place of residence of the Shanks. This lineage chart is entitled, "A Genealogical Diagram of Adam Shank." The compiler was John Longenecker, Wilmot, Ohio, 1908. The chart is in the library at Western Reserve Historical Society in Cleveland, O. Another chart, by the same compiler, in 1903 on the Langenecker in 1903 is the Library of Congress. The earliest ancestor shown is Daniel, born about 1666 in Switzerland. This shows 5 generations and carries one family to the sixth. But since we cannot establish a direct connection with these, as yet, we shall keep this material along with several genealogies on this family in our files.

Our earliest Shank and Longenecker ancestors seem to have resided in Dauphin Co. Pa. Dauphin Co. was formed in 1785 having previously been a part of Lancaster Co.

The newly published Index of Revolutionary War Pension Applications shows some Shanks from Pa., Md., Va., and N.J. A search into these records and also the wills and deeds (land records) might shed more light on the Shank family. The has various spellings: Schank, Schenk, Schanck, Schenck, Swank and more.

From Beer's, History of Darke Co. 1880, we learn that Samuel Longenecker, son of Daniel from Dauphin Co. Pa. was born 5 April 1789 in Pa. Samuel was a cabinet maker and an undertaker. He married 2 Oct. 1810 Anna Shank, daughter of Michael Shank, born 19 Nov. 1790 in Pa. Samuel died in Ohio 14 Sept. 1842. Anna died in Ohio 5 Dec. 1847.

The children of Samuel and Anna (Shank) Longenecker:

John Longenecker	b. 12 Feb. 1830	d. 5 July 1911	m. (1) Letina Holloway She d. 11 mo. after m. (2) Elizabeth Beam.

This family resided in Montgomery County, Ohio.

Ethel Shively made a notation in some correspondence saying, " about the year 1820 Samuel Longenecker and his family and also one of his sisters who was married to a Wilhelm, moved from Dauphin Co. Pa. to Warren Co. Ohio."

In a book, "A genealogical Index of Pioneers of Miami Valley" by Lindsay Brien We find: John Wilhelm from Pa. 1820 to Butler twp., Montgomery Co. Ohio, Wife, Anna Longenecker," children are listed.

The 1840 Federal census shows Michael, Samuel and David Longenecker living in Montgomery Co., Randolph Township, and Benj., Daniel, and John Wilhelm also in Montgomery Co., in Butler township. Of course, it will take more than this to definitely prove the relationship, but the indication is there.

The Coppess Family

Our interest in the Coppess family stems from the fact that Benjamin L. Wise married Anna Marie Coppess on 1 Dec. 1867.

Ethel Shively wrote in a letter in 1957 that "Anna Marie was the daughter of Josiah Coppess. Anna Marie's mother died shortly after Anna Marie was born. Josiah married a sister of his first wife. No one knew the name of the first wife, but the second wife's name was Polly. Anna Marie had a half-brother called "Bub" and two half-sisters--Martha, married---Dancer, and Libbie never married."

For many years, no further knowledge on this family could be found. Altho, the county history recorded much about the Coppess family, no record of Josiah was found.

Then in the early 1970's contact was made with Mrs. Ralph Carpenter, 3699 Saybrook Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio 45208 who compiled a 7 page Coppess Family History in 1969. Each succeeding year, Mrs. Carpenter has added two or more pages of current Coppess descendants and corrections and additions to the history as more knowledge has become available. In the 1970 Coppess newsletter, Mrs. Walter Coppess wrote, "Sebastian's (Bub) parents were Cyrus and Polly Martin Coppess. Bub had a sister, Janie Dancer." This would seem to be the same family except we were looking for Josiah and the name given above was Cyrus.

Ray L. Dancer, 8236 Inwood Ave., Dayton, Ohio 45415 has worked up a line of descent from Josiah and Mary Mollie (Martin) Coppess. According to his findings the Martins, Coppesses and Dancers intermarried. However, our main interest is in the lineage of Anna Marie Coppess.

From Darke Co. (Ohio) Marriage Records, we find:

Josiah Coppess m. Mary Westfall 5 Sept. 1847

Josiah Coppess m. Mary Hankins, 11. Oct. 1849 (Was the penmanship poor and Hankins misread for Martin?)

From the Federal Census for Ohio 1850, we learn:

Josiah Coppas, age 27 $400 in real estate, occupation, farmer residing in Brown township, Darke Co. O. (census date 5 Dec. 1850)

Mary " wife age 21

Anna Maria Coppas age 2

In the Darke Co. Common Pleas Court Records, 1815-1860 is this:

Aug. 18, 1852, Josiah Coppess-Guardian of Anna Coppess, vs. Barbara Westfall.

In Partition . Filed 16 Jan. 1852. Land 107 acres of E. part of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 32.

Twp 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ Range 3- Jacob Westfall dec'd- Widow Barbara Westfall. Partition 3/5 part:

Martin Westfall 1/5 part, Mary Coppess, late Westfall, dec'd-her daughter, Ann Coppess, 1/5 part. Anna Westfall.

The following was found in the Coppess Cemetery Records:

Infant son of Josiah and M. M. Coppess, d. 13 June 1850.

Mrs. Frederick J. Henry, 719 South Thurlow, Hinsdale, Ill. 60521 researched some Coppess records in 1949-1955. Using her findings and those of Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. N. D. Hansell 4939 W. Washington St., Indianapolis, Indiana 46241 who has done much research on her own, is compiling a book on the Coppess family history. It will be a large volume, as she is taking the earliest immigrant and continuing down to the present time, following all the known lines. For this purpose, a form is included in this section. Those who wish to be included in the book may fill in the form and send it to her. The address is included at the bottom of the form.

The use of the two names "Cyrus" and "Josiah" has made the search for Josiah's place on the family tree confusing. However, in recent years, we have come to believe that he was the son of Devault (David) Coppess and Mary Smith.

In the book, "A collection of Upwards of Thirty Thousand Names of German, Swiss, Dutch, French and Other immigrants in Pennsylvania from 1727-1776" by Rupp--

"September 25, 1751, ship Phoenix, John Spurrier, Captain, from Rotterdam, 412 passengers (among them) John George Kappis."

"September 15, 1752, Ship Two Brothers, Thomas Arnot, Captain,... Gottfried Kappes."

"September 16, 1752, Ship Brothers, Capt. William Muir..... 200 passengers,... Hans George Kappes."

"May 31, 1773. The Brigantine Dolphin, Arthur Hill, Commander. From London.... Peter Kappus."

Relationship to these immigrants has not been proven.

Our earliest Coppess ancestor (thus far) is Adam Coppess.

From a General Index of Deeds, Number one Reverse, 1803-1835. Court House in Xenia, Greene County, Ohio----" In 1811 Adam Coppess bought from Josiah Ellam, G.W. Vol.3, page 15, 56½ acres of land. $141.00.

In 1819 Adam Coppess sold to William Davis, G.W. Vol. 7, page 133. 56½ acres of land. $600.00. "

"Adam Coppess and his brother, Peter Coppess came from North Carolina to Ohio. In Cincinnati they separated, Adam going to Greene County, near where the present city of Xenia is now situated." The History of Darke County, Ohio Vol. 2 by F. E. Wilson.

The county history continues, " Adam Coppess was born in North Carolina, but being of an adventurous spirit, was willing to brave the danger of what was then considered the west, left his home in the southland for Greene County, Ohio, going from there to Darke County in 1819. With him in his operations was his son, John Coppess. They secured government land, for which they paid the customary price of $1.25 per acre. From the property thus secured, they developed and made valuable, many acres of land, and on it the John Coppess family was reared.

Adam Coppess took up his abode here in 1819, only two years after Jacob Hartle, the first white settler located in Ohio.* He was of Dutch extraction and a blacksmith by trade, being the first to follow that occupation in this country.

On first coming to Ohio from North Carolina he located in Greene County and it is said he often had to hide to keep from being murdered by Indians. In Darke County he entered land for himself and his sons, made a clearing, and built a log house which stood for a number of years. He took an active part in laying out roads, cleared many acres of land, and made many cowbells by hand. He was a democrat and a Lutheran. He died at the age of 74. His wife survived him by several years. Before leaving North Carolina he married a Miss Mock(Mary) and to them ten children were born: John, David, Peter, Alfred, and Daniel, all farmers, Mrs. Phoebe C. Harney, Mrs. Mary C. Frampton, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Brewer, Mrs. Catherine C. Horney, and Mrs. Sarah C. Robinson."

"Devault (David) Coppess was born in North Carolina 25 Jan. 1795 and died in 1870. He came to Ohio, with his parents when a mere child, location near the present city of Xenia, where he remained until he was 22 years of age when the family moved to Darke County. David (or) Devault coppess married Sarah Horney in Greene Co., 11/1/1818. She apparently died within a short time, as he married Mary Smith, born 1/28/1788 in Darke Co. on 12/19/1822 and they were the parents of 12 children: Daniel, Cyrus, Adam, John S., David, Chipman, Nancy, Catherine, Mary Ann." {Only 9 named. Ray Dancer's list will appear on the next page)

"John S. Coppess, the sixth of the 12, had in his possession, a deed to one quarter-section of land(Sec. 9, Richland township, then known as Township 10) executed and signed by John Quincy Adams on Sept. 20, 1825. The first habitation erected by Devault Coppess was a typical log cabin of the pioneer settler. He died in 1870 and was buried in the Coppess Cemetery on the farm of John S. Coppess who has in his keeping, family records which were written by one of his old teachers, who utilized a quill pen and wrote in the fine copperplate hand, so much in vogue a half century ago."

* Probably should have said "county". Ohio became a state in 1803 and had to have a specific number of inhabitants to achieve this status.

In another history we read: " The first settler in Darke County, Ohio was Jacob Hartle..... who came in 1819..... A short time later came George Beam and Adam Coppess..... and John Coppess, Sr. in 1824.

The first schoolhouse was built on the farm of John Coppess, right across the creek from the Coppess graveyard... Adam Coppess was the first blacksmith. He erected his forge here in the year of his advent. The first schoolhouse was built in 1825 on the farm of John Coppess. It was of logs, with a small window with four panes of glass, near the position of the teacher. The other apertures were of greased paper. There was a large fireplace.....The ague prevailed and they withstood its chills and fever. The dreaded milk sickness ravaged the clearings and they passed through the ordeal to be thereafter known as pioneers of the township. Three children of Adam and Mary Mock Coppess were living in 1897."

The reader is cautioned to remember that persons described in county histories were paying customers of the editor. He tried to please his customers. While no one deliberately gave false information, the facts are sometimes garbled and the dates may not be exact. The person being interviewed may have given the information from memory. County histories are good sources to point out places and approximate dates. Further research in the court files is needed to substantiate the claims made.

Following is the list of children of Devault(David) and Mary Smith Coppess as compiled by Ray Dancer:

The Westfall Family

Research on this family has only been undertaken recently. Hence, a very brief sketch of them.

From the Court Records quoted on p. 15, we can assume that Jacob Westfall and his wife, Barbara were the parents of Mary Westfall, mother of Anna Marie(Coppess) Wise.

" Martin C. Westfall b. 1824 in Montgomery County, (Ohio), son of Jacob who was born in Virginia. Jacob died 1830 or 1840. He married Barbara Crown, also of Virginia. She died at the home of her son, Martin C. Westfall in 1878, age 88 years." This would seem to be the same family as Martin is mentioned in the partition suit of land.

More research should be done in Ohio and then back to the state of Virginia.

This history of the Coppess family would not be complete without recognition of the generous help of Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Hansell. Both have assisted in the beginning of the Westfall family history.

Mrs. Hansell wrote in June 1976 that she has been gathering Coppess information for the last 35 years. "I do have 148 typed pages of this, plus 32 pages of index. There are over 700 family names in the index. ... You are in the 7th generation and I am in the 6th.... There are still too many gaps. Until I can fill in more of them, I do not think it is suitable to be published."

Let us all do our part by sending her the filled in form on the following page.

Mart Remodeling Nearly Complete

Remodeling and expansion of "The Mart" in Sunset Plaza center will be completed in about one more week.

Glenn Long, president and manager, said the interior has been repainted, new fixtures added, and merchandise lines expanded. Men's suits and women's sportswear are being added to the clothing line.

Construction of the addition to the rear of the present store increased the store size by a third. The additional 1400 square feet provides more display area, wider aisles, storage and office space.

The facelifting will also include a change in the store's name. It will be known as "Long's Inc. of Salina". The Salina store opened five years ago.

Long and his brother, Arthur, own similar stores in Hutchinson, Junction City and Dodge City. The name of the Hutchinson store is also being changed to "Long's", as the other two stores are already known.

The Salina store has remained open during the expansion. New fall merchandise will go on display when the work is completed, Long said.

Vern Webster To Denver

Vernon Webster, owner of Vernon Jewelers, has been invited to fly, with all expenses paid, to Denver Sunday to serve as an advisor at a jewelers' meeting.

He will attend Sunday and Monday sessions of the Central region of the Retail Jewelers of America association.

Webster is a former president of the Kansas Retail Jewelers, the only living man to have been president three years. He will be accompanied by the current Kansas president, Bob Flowers, Junction City.

The funeral will be at 9:30 am Wednesday at the First Methodist Church, Dr. Basil Johnson officiating.

Entombment will be in Gypsum Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the Rush Smith funeral home.

PAUL CARLSON

LINDSBORG — Paul Carlson, 64, a lifetime resident of Lindsborg, died Sunday at the Lindsborg community hospital.

Mr. Carlson was born May 7, 1882 at Lindsborg. He was a farmer and meat cutter.

Survivors include his widow, Agnes, of the home; two daughters, Debora, and Mrs. Elaine Anderson, both of Kansas City; three sons, Roy, Lincoln; Lawrence, Topeka, and Bill, 412 E. Bond, Salina, and 11 grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 2:30 pm Tuesday at the Evangelical Brethren Church, Lindsborg, the Rev. Raymond Johnson officiating. Burial will be in Elmwood cemetery.

Friends may call from 7-9 pm Monday at the Anderson funeral home, Lindsborg.

MRS. EVA K. HOWARD

Mrs. Eva K. Howard, 88, 345 W. Beloit, died at 6:15 pm Sunday at Asbury hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Howard was born July 22, 1877 in Topeka. She had been a resident of Salina for 32 years.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Bessie Pickard, Cheyenne, Wyo., and Mrs. Ruby M. Reaves, Cushing, Okla.; two sons, Harvey E., Miami, Fla., and Harry B., Salina; one brother, Willis Duncan, Atlanta, Kas. and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be announced by the Chapel funeral home.

CHARLOTTE F. HAVEL

CUBA — Charlotte Faye Havel, 22, Cuba, died July 13 at the Republic county hospital after a lifetime of illness with cerebral palsy.

She was born Dec. 1, 1943, at Belleville. She lived on a farm with her parents until 1955, when the family moved to Cuba. She was in and out of hospitals in her early childhood. She became seriously ill on July 11.

Miss Havel was a member of the Cuba Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Havel, of the home; a sister LaRae, 749 S. 9th, Salina, and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wiche, Cuba.

The funeral was July 15 with burial in the Bohemian (former Kopsa) national cemetery at Cuba.

MRS. HAROLD C. FRINK

Leola Alberta Frink, 40, Pa-

lived in Salina for 40 years. He retired in 1937 after 26 years of service.

He was a member of the University Methodist Church, Retired Civil Service Employees and the Association of Retired Rural Letter Carriers.

Surviving are the widow, Sarah; one daughter, Mrs. A. W. Conrath, Moline, Ill.; one son, Don E. Joslin, New Providence, N. J., and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be at 10:30 am Tuesday at the University Methodist Church, the Rev. Richard Wilke and the Rev. Roger Harmon officiating.

Burial will be in Gypsum Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the Rush Smith funeral home until Tuesday morning and at the church from 9:30 am Tuesday until the service.

CLARENCE S. KILGORE

The funeral for Clarence S. (Kelly) Kilgore, 74, former Salina resident, who died Saturday, will be at 2 pm Wednesday at the Guy R. Ryans Sons mortuary, the Rev. Norman Ullestad officiating.

Burial will be in Gypsum Hill cemetery.

The funeral was scheduled for Tuesday, but a family accident necessitated changing the funeral date.

LOUIS CHARBONNEAU

The funeral for Louis Charbonneau, 80, 1009 E. Iron, who died Saturday, will be Wednesday at 9 am at St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Clyde, the Rev. Robert Verring officiating.

The funeral for Harry Hobbs, 41, Solomon, will be at Gillum-Carlson Chapel in Solomon at 10 am Wednesday, the Rev. John Daly officiating.

Mr. Hobbs died Saturday in Topeka.

Burial and graveside services will be at 2 pm Wednesday at Milo cemetery, Barnard.

Rebels Kill Island Mayor

MANILA (AP) — A mayor and five aides on their way to attend a law and order conference with President Ferdinand E. Marcos were slain by Huk insurgents today, the Philippine constabulary reported.

Troops were rushed to the pursuit of the attackers. Although the Communist-led rebels were crushed militarily during the 1950s, scattered bands still roam the provinces around Manila and terrorize villagers.

Crash Victims Are Recovering

Ronald Schneider, 208 Des Moines, who was injured in an auto collision south of Lincoln Friday night was reported in fair condition Monday at St. John's hospital.

It was reported that his condition had not changed much since Sunday but that he was progressing. Mrs. Schneider was killed in the accident.

Shelby L. Jorgensen, 5, Mrs. Schneider's son by another marriage, was reportedly "holding his own" and showing slight improvement also at St. John's.

At Asbury

Thadene S. Satterlee, 18, 444 S. College, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Satterlee, Assaria, was a passenger in the Schneider car. She was reported in satisfactory condition Monday in the intensive care unit at Asbury hospital.

The accident occurred about 7:15 pm on a Lincoln county road 6.1 miles south of Lincoln and 1.4 miles west.

The other car, driven by Paul O. Mannel, 55, Lincoln, was enroute west and the Schneider car enroute east when they met at the crest of a hill. Mannel is hospitalized at Lincoln.

Welfare Case Trial To Open

ABILENE — The trial of Dean L. Snapp, Topeka, who was indicted by the Dickinson county grand jury during a probe of welfare practices, will begin here Tuesday.

The trial will start at 10 am in division two of the Dickinson county district court before Judge Albert H. Fletcher, Jr., Junction City.

Snapp is charged with giving false statements in connection with aid to dependent children. He allegedly lived in Abilene at the time. He is represented by a Topeka attorney.

County Attorney John Christner said Monday he plans to call a number of witnesses.

He said both sides have agreed to try the case before the judge and no jury will be called.

Snapp was the second man indicted by the grand jury during its investigation. The first man indicted has not been arrested and is out of the state.

Ellsworth Shuts Income Tax Increase Talk

Robert Ellsworth, candidate for the Republican nomination, said Monday he opposes an income tax increase currently discussed in Washington.

"The idea is to take spending power away from the people by controlling inflation," he said.

Ellsworth believes this does no good unless the federal government cuts down on spending. "That would be the best way to control inflation," he said. "Then we would need the tax increase."

Ellsworth also commented on another issue, the increase in wheat allotment.

ordinary map. Still, the general district, under which they are named, locates them approximately.

There are 404 names in our list, although the number of persons covered is considerably larger. But, as the exact number of persons in each family is not always given, it is impossible to state the total number of persons included in the list. Of the 404 persons at least 30 are women. Of the rest, 374 men, 190 are found in the Pennsylvania lists of pioneers. That is, more than half can actually be traced as having come to Pennsylvania. The others may have died on the way, or some of them may have gone to other American colonies, notably to Carolina, for which many were headed in the beginning.

In order to make the list more useful, the exact name as found in the Pennsylvania lists and the time of arrival in Philadelphia are given in smaller print immediately below the names, while statements as to their places of settlement in Pennsylvania, are given in footnotes. Let us hope that other, similar lists may soon be found, which will identify more homes, from which these sturdy pioneers came forth to venture upon the long and difficult journey to the New World, where they made a noteworthy contribution to American civilization.
